MINISTER OF FISHERIES TO SEEK MARKETS

Hon. E. N. Rhodes Authorizes Survey of Methods of Selling Fish
HOPES TO STIMULATE SEA PRODUCTS SALES
Export as Well as Home Consumption Will Be Analyzed

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—Canadians can be induced to eat more fish and the Minister of Fisheries, Hon. E. N. Rhodes, proposes to find out how it can be done. With the immediate object of putting the fishing industry on its feet, Mr. Rhodes has arranged for an exhaustive survey of methods of marketing the catches from the Atlantic, Pacific and Great Lakes fisheries at every stage from the fisherman to the consumer. The firm of Cockfield, Brown & Company, Limited, of Montreal, has been engaged to make the survey and report to the Government.

PROMPT ACTION
The announcement made by the minister today outlines the first definite step taken by the Department of Fisheries since it was placed under the exclusive control of one minister. Until the last regular session of Parliament the department was administered jointly with the Department of Marine.

In looking over the activities of the department since he assumed office, Mr. Rhodes said he had found many of them had been misdirected. The methods used to improve the lot of the fishermen had been largely palliative in character.

There had never been a thorough attempt to get to the bottom of the troubles besetting the industry. In the minister's opinion the continuous spending of money on palliative measures was not justified unless there was a constructive programme designed to make the industry self-sustaining.

POSSIBILITIES GREAT
Mr. Rhodes said that according to the best statistics available, the per capita consumption of fish in Canada is twenty-two pounds per annum, whereas in Great Britain, according to figures accurately compiled, the consumption is 40.3 pounds.

An increase of ten pounds per head each year, making the Canadian consumption three-quarters of that in Great Britain, would result in increased Canadian sales amounting to 100,000,000 pounds per year and it is for the purpose of preparing the ground upon which can be based a policy designed to accomplish this that the survey is being undertaken.

The survey will involve an analysis of competitive conditions both in the domestic market as regards imported fish, canned and otherwise, and in certain foreign markets catered to by the Canadian trade. It will be necessary to examine the manner of merchandising, the marketing and advertising policies in current use in other countries in which fish marketing has reached a high state of efficiency, and especially in those countries whose products compete directly or indirectly with Canadian fish.

ALBERTA GOVERNMENT HAS SURPLUS AGAIN

EDMONTON, Nov. 7.—Showing a surplus of $52,170 on a total revenue turnover of $15,111,085, the public accounts for Alberta for the fiscal year ending March 31 last, were given out today by Hon. R. G. Reid, Provincial Treasurer.

The surplus is the fifth in succession that the Government has reported.

Price of Silver To Be Considered At London Parley

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—Stabilization of the price of silver will be considered by the general economic committee of the Imperial Conference, Premier E. B. Bennett has cabled the Vancouver Board of Trade, in answer to its request that the matter be placed before the conference.

Four Hurt In Bridge Accident

MERCED, Calif., Nov. 7.—Four University of California co-eds were seriously, possibly fatally, injured today when the state highway bridge over Bear Creek at the edge of Merced collapsed and threw the girls, who were in an automobile, into the water twenty feet below.

The girls injured are Shize Morey, twenty-two, Los Angeles; Grace Takata, Berkeley; Fanny Lin, nineteen, San Francisco; and Clara Chan, San Francisco.

Miss Chan was driving. The girls were en route from Berkeley to Los Angeles to attend the California University of Southern California football game tomorrow.

MACHINE GUNS GUARD RAS AT DEMONSTRATION

Thousands of Howling Warriors Parade Before Ethiopian Emperor
VISITORS BREATHELESS AT AMAZING REVIEW

ADDIS ABABA, Abyssinia, Nov. 7.—One hundred thousand Ethiopian warriors today galloped past the newly-crowned Emperor Haile Selassie in token of their fealty and as a great farewell demonstration for the foreigners from afar who attended the coronation on Sunday.

Shouting and rattling like wild Apaches on the warpath, the hordes of feudal chieftains and tribesmen, attired in medieval garb of shaggy lion manes and armed with lances and swords, swept up before the monarch on beautiful and high-spirited horses.

Haile Selassie sat enthroned on a golden dais, wearing the uniform of commander-in-chief of the Ethiopian army.

Ship Burned After Blast; Crew Rescued

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 7.—The schooner Rose Mary, en route from Mexico to Baltimore with dye-producing timber, burned ten miles off Key West today after an explosion of unreported origin.

Captain George Eden, the owner, and his wife, assistant navigator, were rescued with eight members of the crew by the United States S. S. Hannibal, Government survey vessel.

Captain Eden said the Rose Mary's 10,000 cargo would be a total loss. The navy wrecking tug Warbler went to the assistance of the Rose Mary when the Hannibal brought back the crew to Key West Naval Station, but reported that nothing could be done.

NINE FAMILIES MADE HOMELESS

CHICOUTIMI, Que., Nov. 7.—Nine families were rendered homeless and damage amounting to $50,000 caused by a fire which broke out at St. Felicien, Que., last night.

The Chateau de St. Felicien was first destroyed, the flames quickly spreading to nearby houses, despite efforts of firemen to control them.

ITALIANS HELD IN PARIS
PARIS, Nov. 7.—Forty-seven Italians were arrested by police today in their drive to break up the anti-Pascist organizations.

FIRE AT ROYAL CASTLE
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 7.—Valuable art treasures and historic furniture were saved from a fire which damaged the first floor of the Fredensborg Castle, which for years has been the Autumn residence of Danish monarchs.

ARRESTS AT SYDNEY
SYDNEY, N.S.W., Nov. 7.—Communist celebrations here today of the Russian revolution anniversary developed disorderly scenes. The police arrested ten people on charges of participating in an unlawful procession.

REVOLUTION RUMORS HEARD IN URUGUAY
MONTVIDEO, Uruguay, Nov. 7.—Advices today from Rivera, Uruguayan town on the Brazilian frontier, belittled importance of reports circulated here that a revolutionary movement was under way in that region.

Commercial activities were said to be normal. El Dia, Montevideo newspaper, yesterday published information from its River correspondent, that a subversive outbreak was being planned for November 10, when Nepomuceno Saravia, Miguel Beruti and others would lead an army against the Government at Montevideo.

OUTLAWS HOLD UP TRAIN; GET $60,000 LOOT

Six or Seven Armed and Masked Men Rob Cars Near Nobel, California
PASSENGERS IN PANIC; ONLY ONE SHOT FIRED

Two Machine Guns Mounted on Stolen Automobile—Bandits Make Escape

OAKLAND, Nov. 7.—With the dispatch of modern racketeering and some of the fair of the old West, a band of outlaws held up a Southern Pacific passenger train near Nobel today and escaped with loot estimated at $55,700 or more.

Passengers were not molested but were thrown into a panic when a transformer on an adjoining electric line blew out. Eyewitnesses agreed but one shot was fired by the six or seven armed and masked men. The escape was made in a stolen motor car.

The train was No. 16, which runs daily between Oakland and Tracy, Cal., leaving Oakland about 7 a.m.

Authorities believed two men boarded the train at Berkeley as passengers.

ENGINE IS STOPPED

Near Nobel, seven miles from here, an armed man, masked, who had climbed across coaches and tender, jumped into the locomotive and in a thin, high, calm voice, commanded the engineer and fireman to stop the engine.

R. E. Lemery, engineer, and S. E. O'Brien, fireman, were forced to lie face down on the ground. The masked man was waiting beside the track with other robbers in it. Two machine guns were mounted on the car and each robber was armed with a high-power rifle except one who had a shotgun and the man who climbed into the cab with a pistol.

TARIFF BRINGS PROSPERITY TO TEXTILE MILLS

Reports to Minister of Labor Show That Employment Has Increased
NEW FACTORIES ARE BEING CONSTRUCTED

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—From a number of leading Canadian manufacturers, Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, has received encouraging reports of increased employment in their plants following the enactment of the recent tariff changes. Quite a number report the construction of larger factories; some the opening of plants which have been closed down, and others the speeding up of plants which had been running on short time.

A knitting company states it added thirty-two employees to its staff during September and started operating full time instead of four days a week. A large textile company submitted a table showing the percentage of possible loom hours per week in their plants increased from 80.73 per cent on September 6 to 84.86 per cent on October 18.

BUILDING NEW PLANTS

With some 200 men now employed on the construction of an addition to the plant of a silk company, the company reports the addition of from sixty to seventy girls to its regular staff. Another textile mill has taken on an additional 250 men in its spinning department and expects to employ fifty more shortly.

When plant additions at another mill are completed the present staff of eighty-five will be increased to 200. The establishment of a branch factory by a British firm is expected to give employment to some 300 operatives. Two woolen mills in Ontario, closed down for a time, announce they are reopening and will employ about 200 hands each.

Premier Makes Strong Plea for B.C. Salmon Purchases

PROMPT action to secure for British Columbia fisheries due consideration in the Empire quota purchase plan, now before the Imperial Conference at London, England, was taken by Premier Talmie last evening in the following cable to Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce:

"Press reports indicate exclusion of canned salmon from proposed quota scheme, on ground of impracticability due to scattered sources of supply. This, as you know, is incorrect, as canned salmon is produced within the Empire only in this Province, and personally see no reason whatever, if quota scheme is adopted, why it should not apply to our salmon. This would enable us to get our share of what should be our best market in competition with Japanese and Russians. Hope you will use your best efforts to assist fisheries by insisting on their inclusion in this quota scheme."

The message was forwarded to Mr. Stevens, in care of Canada House, London, and will be taken up by him with the Empire Conference.

Minister of Marine Inspects Plant

HON. Alfred Duranleau, Minister of Marine in the Cabinet of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, has been making a thorough examination of the harbors of Victoria and Esquimalt during his visit here. The minister and D. B. Plunkett, M.P., are here shown with the staff in charge of the big dock at Esquimalt, which Hon. Mr. Duranleau inspected. Those in the group are, left to right: Allan Craig, chief engineer; Mr. Plunkett, Hon. Mr. Duranleau; W. A. Gourlay, assistant engineer of the Dominion Public Works Department at Victoria, and Capt. O. R. Parker, superintendent of the drydock.

CONSERVATIVE IS VICTOR IN SHIPLEY SEAT

J. H. Lockwood Wrests Vital Yorkshire Seat From Labor in By-Election Poll
LOSS OF CONFIDENCE IN GOVT IS SHOWN

LONDON, Nov. 7.—For the first time in many years a Conservative was today declared the elected member for the constituency of Shipley, in Yorkshire. John H. Lockwood, Conservative, headed the by-election poll with 15,238 votes against 13,844 for W. A. Robinson, Labor, and 12,784 for A. Davis, Liberal.

Since the war, Shipley, in the industrial north, had returned Labor members before the war the Liberal member for the seat. Both Conservative and Liberal members at Westminster tonight interpreted the Shipley result as being symptomatic of loss of confidence in the Government in the North. Both opposition parties increased their polls, while Labor lost 5,000 votes, as compared with the general election of 1929.

The death of William Mackinder, trade unionist and sitting member, caused the vacancy in the House.

Lord Rothermere's Evening News tonight greets the result as a by-election surprise. The Evening Standard, Beaverbrook organ, reported the issue under "Surprise result." The Star, Liberal, minister Mr. Lockwood, the successful candidate, his heartfelt congratulations, adding: "Your success will do much to encourage and enthrone the Conservative party throughout the country."

In the general election of 1929, William Mackinder, Labor, won with 18,844 votes, Sir Robert Clough, Conservative, had 13,692, and P. W. Hirst, Liberal, 11,712. Labor's majority in 1924 was only 598 votes.

Washington Town Is Threatened by Fire

NORTHPORT, Wash., Nov. 7.—A spectacular fire, which destroyed a Great Northern coal bunker and an oil-burner freight engine, threatened the town for a time today.

The fire was believed to have originated in the oil tank of the locomotive during servicing. C. W. Drummond, a watchman, who attempted to move the engine to safety, was badly burned, and his ankle was broken as he jumped from the cab. Eleven thousand gallons of oil ablaze sent flames and smoke 400 feet into the air.

KING SERVES 'HITCH'

MADRID, Nov. 7.—King Alfonso served a twenty-four-hour "hitch" in his own army today, donning the uniform as commander-in-chief and inspecting one of the city barracks.

Lumber Valued At $100,000 Swept By Fire At San Pedro

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Nov. 7.—A spectacular fire swept the McCorky Lumber Company wharf and destroyed lumber valued by company officials at $100,000 here last night. Although the flames were still leaping high into the air, fire department officials said there was little danger of them spreading to other lumber yards nearby. Two fireboats, several fire engines and bucket brigades battled the fire for four hours.

THREE MORE PLANES PREPARING TO JOIN SEARCH FOR ARMEN

Organized Effort to Find Burke and Renahan Parties Being Prepared at Vancouver—Government Invited to Send Two Machines—Five May Aid Wasson and Eckmann

Fate of Lost Men Is Mystery; New Theories Are Being Studied

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—Five machines will be roaring northward within the next few days to comb the Atlin-Liard district for Captain E. J. A. Burke, Vancouver aviator who has been missing for twenty-seven days in the Northern wilderness, and a determined effort will also be made to solve the mystery of Robin "Pat" Renahan's fate, if plans laid at a meeting of city aviation experts today materialize.

Major D. R. MacLaren, D.S.O., M.C., head of the Western Canada Airways, was placed in charge of organizing the search party, and tonight Major MacLaren announced that fairly comprehensive plans had already been completed.

Two machines have been offered for the search by Edmund Lowe, head of Pacific Airways, and the Air-Land Company will send one of the Junkers' machines with the party. In addition, the Dominion Government has been asked to detail two Fairchild photographic planes, which are now at Comox Lake. This will give a fleet of five machines, together with Pilot E. L. Wasson, of the Treadwell Yukon Co., now in the North, and Ansel Eckmann, who has been at Prince Rupert for three days aiding in the hunt for Renahan.

VIOLENT CLASH BETWEEN REDS AND POLICEMEN

Officers Break Up Communists' Parade at Hamilton—Eight Arrests Made
MANY KNOCKED DOWN IN GENERAL MELEE

HAMILTON, Nov. 7.—A short, sharp skirmish wherein fists flew, helmets rolled in the gutter, lips were cut and arms bruised, marked the first violent clash between Communists and policemen here today. Eight of the "Red" leaders were arrested on open charges.

The trouble started when the Communists to the number of 300 decided to hold a parade to the City Hall, contrary to the order of the chief of police. The Reds marched in orderly fashion to a downtown corner where they found a barrier of bluecoats awaiting them.

Despite the caution of the cooler heads among the marchers, some firebrand precipitated a general melee by bringing his banner down on the head of a policeman. The officers charged and many persons were knocked down and trampled. After a few minutes of sharp conflict the police routed the parade, taking eight into custody.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—Several hundred unemployed were routed by police swinging batons today on Champ de Mars, near the Montreal City Hall. The demonstrators paraded to the square, but were met by a strong force of police and were quickly dispersed. The crowd offered no serious opposition to the police and no arrests were made. A scheduled Communist meeting on Dominion Square was not held.

EXTRA-TERRITORIALITY ABOLITION ADVOCATED

NANKING, Nov. 7.—C. T. Wang, Nationalist Foreign Minister, today said the question of extra-territoriality was the most important diplomatic matter now confronting the National Government.

"Never will China regain her full sovereignty and proper place in the family of nations unless extra-territoriality is abolished," he said, in a statement to correspondents today.

Internal disputes, he said, had for some time affected the progress of negotiations, but that now with the settlement of the internal political situation, public support in China should be a most important factor. Shantung had been returned to China chiefly because of the vigorous protests of the people through out the country, while the restoration to China of complete tariff autonomy also was the result of public agitation.

"The people of China," he said, "should unite to fight for the abolition of extra-territoriality. Some powers have expressed friendship sympathy expressed by actions and not words. The National Government especially hopes that Great Britain, the United States and France will be able to give concrete evidence of their friendship in extra-territorial negotiations."

It is the urgent hope of political leaders of both the Northern and Southern factions that the meeting will be held, since it is considered virtually impossible for political and military conditions to continue as at present. Both Peiping and Tientsin have been suggested for the meeting place, and it was not until today that it was thought possible that Marshal Chang would venture as far south as Nanking.

Leaders May Plan Future For Country

SHANGHAI, Nov. 7.—The much-heralded meeting between President Chiang Kai-Shek and Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang, Manchurian war lord, which has been delayed through mutual suspicions, and which is expected to do much towards mapping out a definite political programme for the nation, will be held at Nanking next Wednesday when the Mukden was last arrives at Nanking, according to private reports received here today.

It is the urgent hope of political leaders of both the Northern and Southern factions that the meeting will be held, since it is considered virtually impossible for political and military conditions to continue as at present. Both Peiping and Tientsin have been suggested for the meeting place, and it was not until today that it was thought possible that Marshal Chang would venture as far south as Nanking.

DELEGATION TO MINISTER OVER SEAPLANE BASE

Civic Authorities Present Case to Hon. Alfred Duranleau for Decision

WILL CONSIDER CASE ON HIS RETURN EAST

Declaring it was not the intention of his department to hamper the development of airway transportation or to do anything that was not in the best interests of the port of Victoria, Hon. Alfred Duranleau, Minister of Marine, informed a civic delegation yesterday afternoon that on his return to Ottawa, he would ask for a conference and expert advice from the officers of the Department of National Defence and Department of Marine in connection with the proposal to establish a seaplane base in Victoria.

The conference, which was arranged by Mayor Herbert Anson and D. B. Plunkett, M.P.P., was held at the Empress Hotel at 2:15 yesterday afternoon, with the following officials present: P. B. Fowler, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Major R. B. Ker, chairman of the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce; Alderman W. T. Straith, chairman of the industrial committee of the City Council; Alderman W. H. Oulton, Mayor; H. Culbert Holmes, B. J. Hall; Col. A. W. R. Wilby, marine agent; J. H. Beatty, M.P.P., and D. B. Plunkett, M.P.P. for Victoria, who introduced the delegation.

CITY PRESENTS CASE

The case of the delegation was presented by Alderman W. T. Straith, supported by R. B. Ker, H. C. Holmes and J. H. Beatty, M.P.P. They reviewed the negotiations which had taken place between the City Council, Chamber of Commerce and the aviation branch at Ottawa and the Department of National Defence. It was asserted by Alderman Straith that the aviation branch of the Department of National Defence had been fully informed and had consented to the granting of rights for a seaplane base under certain restricted regulations and recommended the most suitable place for a seaplane base would be in the inner harbor. Representations which had been made between the city of Victoria and Ottawa were gone into in detail and the facts presented to the Minister.

STATEMENT BY MINISTER
After hearing the case presented by the delegation the Minister stated it was not the desire in any way hamper what would be for the benefit of the port of Victoria. He said he quite understood that it was an important question with the people of Victoria to have a seaplane base as near to the centre of the city as possible, but that it was his duty as Minister of Marine to guard the interests of navigation first.

The Minister took the attitude that he feared there had not been the necessary conferences between the Department of National Defence and the Department of Marine in this matter and that the Department of National Defence perhaps had not seen or considered all the dangers which might arise to navigation in the granting of foreshore rights.

TO ASK CONFERENCE

Mr. Duranleau finally informed the delegation that immediately on his arrival home in Ottawa he would expedite this in any way he could on his arrival in Ottawa and would advise the City Council and the Victoria authorities at his earliest opportunity. The Minister also asked Mr. Straith to send a detailed statement of his representations and case to Ottawa to help the department in making a decision.

In concluding his remarks, the Minister stated he wished to extend his thanks to the delegation for their presence and had obtained, through their visit, a great deal of thorough information of the case from their point of view.

The statement of the Minister showed he was sincere in his efforts to aid in so far as it was possible the aviation interests of the city of Victoria.

REVIEW OF POINTS

The representations, which were made to the Minister of Marine, concerned the proposed establishment of a seaplane base at the foot of Erie Street and the construction of a modern seaplane hangar on three city lots on the foreshore of the inner harbor at the same location, by the Pacific International Airways, Ltd., of which Edward A. Lowe, Jr., is the president. It had proceeded to a point where it was necessary to secure foreshore rights from the Department of Marine. Shipping interests in Victoria, apparently fearing danger to navigation by the location of the base in the inner harbor, opposed the granting of the rights and the case was transferred to the head office of the shipping companies in Montreal. Recently the City Council was informed by the deputy minister of marine that foreshore rights on the three properties could not be granted.

The visit here of the Minister of Marine afforded the civic authorities of submitting the case to the head of the department most concerned with the result, that a conference was held yesterday afternoon.

LOWE TO USE VICTORIA

NATIONAL BROADCAST OF LEGION CEREMONY PLANNED FOR TUESDAY

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The national Armistice Day ceremony will be held in Ottawa at 8 o'clock in the evening of November 11. In view of that date not being a public holiday, officials of the Canadian Legion who have the arrangements for the ceremony under their direction, decided an evening service would accommodate the general public better than one held in the forenoon. Elsewhere throughout the Dominion, legion ceremonies will be conducted under arrangements made by the various local commands.

As usual the national service will have its venue on Parliament Hill, where a temporary cenotaph has been erected. His Excellency the Governor-General will attend.

One feature of the national ceremony will be its broadcast through a hook-up from coast to coast.

Following the tolling for fifteen minutes of the tenor bell of the carillon in the Peace Tower of the Parliament Buildings, the 1st Brigade Canadian Artillery, will fire a gun on the last stroke of 8 o'clock, to signify the beginning of a period of two minutes' silence in memory of the fallen. At 8:02 p.m. another gun will be fired, indicating the close of that period.

Man Who Was Brought Up By Baboons Retains Odd Habits After Many Years

By ARTHUR BELL
(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service)

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, Nov. 7.—Those who imagine that the Tarzan stories are altogether fantastic should pay a visit to a farm near Port Alfred on the stormy cape coast of South Africa, and meet Mr. Tarzan himself.

He doesn't call himself Tarzan, of course; he doesn't really call himself anything. He answers to the name of Lucas, bestowed on him by George Smith, in whose care he has been for the last fifteen years.

Lucas was found at that time by some mounted policemen. He was playing among a troop of baboons in the bush. The officers thought at first that the troop consisted of nothing else but baboons, but one, less stalwart and active than the rest, attracted their attention. When they captured him they discovered to their amazement that he was human, although he could utter only animal sounds like his simian associates.

Today, at the age of thirty, Lucas still presents the appearance and preserves some of the habits of the baboon, although he has learned a few words in the native tongue, and can make himself understood by those who know him. He has long arms like an ape and his thumbs do not have the usual human development. When he is told to lead oxen he sometimes gets a fit of activity and jumps on top of the yoke of the front bullocks. He sits there muttering strange guttural sounds. At one time he would dart among the trees for no apparent reason and swing from branch to branch with amazing agility, but age has had a mellowing effect on what are literally his animal spirits.

DOCILE AND FAITHFUL

Apart from the uncertainty as to what he will do next, he is not a troublesome boarder for Mr. Smith. He is almost doglike in his docility and faithfulness, and he cares so little about food that raw meat, and especially uncooked wild birds, are as welcome to him as the farm chef's best efforts. Other natives, however primitive, always roast their meat before eating it.

His early history is not at all certain, but it is believed when a baby he was put to sleep one day in the shade of a maize patch. When his mother returned he had disappeared and could not be traced. When he was discovered by the police many years later his body was covered with scars received in jumping about the bush while living like a baboon. Unfortunately he cannot tell much of this early life, but he has made Mr. Smith understand that the baboons used to cuddle him between them to keep his hairless body warm on cold nights.

R. T. WILLIAMS SEEKS CIVIC COUNCIL SEAT

Announces Candidature on a Policy of Saving in the Cost of Administration

Having outlined a policy which he believes will, if adopted, be beneficial to the administration of civic affairs in the city of Victoria, R. T. Williams, former city alderman, has announced he will be a candidate for the municipal council at the coming elections in December.

Mr. Williams, who is well known to the ratepayers of Victoria, having served as an alderman for seven years from 1904 to 1907, a continuous record of service with the exception of the year 1901, is entering the campaign with the idea of effecting a saving in administration without affecting payrolls. Of this policy he will have something to say during the course of his campaign.

While a member of the council, Mr. Williams served as chairman of such important committees as finance, public works and railways, and in 1905 declined mayoralty election by acclamation. "I declined to accept the mayoralty in that year because I then considered, and do today, the honor of being Mayor of the city of Victoria is an expensive one, requiring an expenditure personally of an amount far in excess of that received for services given. In saying this I am not making any reference to our good mayor, Mr. Anson, for whom I have the greatest respect, and who, I am sure, is filling the office with the highest dignity. If elected I will give of my knowledge and experience to the betterment of the city of Victoria," he said.

IMPERIAL PREFERENCES

If Mr. R. B. Bennett is right in his conjectures about the future of Imperial co-operation there is an overwhelming plea that the Imperial Conference, in view of the attitude of Great Britain's Labor Government, should postpone its decisions, or at least some of them, until all the implications can be considered in the light of happenings during the next twelve months. Political changes are certain to occur, changes which will make the task of economic co-operation within the Empire easier than it is today and there is no legitimate reason why a Labor Government in Great Britain should be permitted to bolt and bar the door against the only really permanent solution for binding the Imperial domain by closer economic ties.

The time is coming when the fetish of free trade cannot be allowed any longer to stand in the way of this desirable consummation. The present attitude of the Labor Government of Great Britain has only been applauded by those who believe in worn-out economic doctrines, and perhaps also by those who consider that the ties of Empire should be none other than sentimental. Perhaps, also, the pronouncement of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald is favored by those who wish to see the Empire disrupted. On the other hand, all anxious to promote Imperial co-operation on the lines of closer economic bonds are heartily in favor of the Imperial Preference proposals put forward by Canada's Prime Minister. The Empire can afford to wait until there is a more sympathetic Government in power in Great Britain. That is the compelling reason why the present Imperial Conference should adjourn for twelve months—not disband. The importance resting upon the coming decision in reference to Imperial co-operation was stressed by Mr. Bennett in one of his latest speeches when he said:

"The position of Canada has been made clear. We believe it is in the interest of our own country that a closer Empire trade relationship should be established. We believe that it is equally in the interest of the other part of the Empire that it should be so. In that view there is no disagreement. Canada has suggested a plan by which this may be brought about. In the near future it will be either accepted or rejected. We can only await the decision. It will be a momentous one, for I believe, and believing, I consider it is my duty to say, that if this opportunity for closer Empire economic relations is not seized it may not come again.

"This, I need not tell you, is in no sense intended as a threat. It is rather a prediction which, unhappily, I believe to be true. For we must all have regard for the basic changes in conditions of world trade, and realize that in this age of great industrialization and fierce competition the old rules may very well be now, if they are followed, the sign-posts to commercial disaster. That danger must be a challenge to action; to wise and immediate action which will sweep from your way the obstacles that deny you the greater future which should rightfully follow on your great past."

LITERATURE

Book Week, now being observed, a time when an effort is being made to arouse an interest in the literature of our country, is a reminder that the best governments may be expected where the leading men of affairs are also men of letters. We have, perhaps, to reach that stage yet in Canada for it is mainly lawyers and those prominent in business life who attain political power here. Perhaps Great Britain is the most striking example of a country where men of letters have reached the seats of Government. There are the examples of Lords Balfour, Rosebery and Birkhead, of Viscount Grey, Mr. Winston Churchill and Mr. Baldwin. Numerous others might be quoted, among them Lord Hewart. The latter's new volume, "Essays and Observations," is of peculiar significance at a time when the effort is being made to arouse a new interest in literature.

Lord Hewart says that one of the most potent causes of the present discontents is the tendency to lay stress on rights rather than duties. This statement is contained in an address on "Law, Ethics and Legislation," in which he contends that the real progress of humanity depends far more on the conception of duty than on the conception of rights. Duty can only be learned in its widest sense by a knowledge of literature, for it is that which makes us the heirs of the ages. It teaches, as Lord Hewart says, the force of the words that Tennyson put into the mouth of Tullius:

"Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control,
These three alone lead life to sovereign power,
... To live by law,
Acting the law we live by without fear."

Lord Hewart contends that the relation of literature to life is the relation of love-making to love, for the world, like woman, loves to be told, and it is the function of literature to satisfy that demand. We quote: "Literature, I suggest to you, is the post-dated pleasure of life, fixed and made eternal. It is, if you will permit the metaphor, the sieve of human life which passes the dregs through and leaves us the pure vintage, ever improving with age, so that the longer a great literary work lasts the better it tastes. And, in a sense, at any rate, this telling of the tale, this filtering of life, which is the agreeable task of literature, is greater than the deeds which it records or criticizes. Nor is it great deeds only that literature makes immortal, but all things that are true in human nature and memorable. It is, so to say, the feminine element. Man acts—literature and woman immortalize."

B.C.'s INACCESSIBLE RESOURCES

It is now some twenty years since the Grand Trunk Pacific main line, was built across Central British Columbia to Prince Rupert, but what has been done in that period in the way of building branch lines to open up new areas within striking distance of the railway, and thus to make accessible the natural wealth known to exist there? It is true that the war for a time brought a halt to railway construction, but the war ended twelve years ago. Since the war, and more particularly during the past five years, the extension of branch railways from the main lines crossing the three Prairie Provinces has been an outstanding feature in current history. All along the front from Edmonton to Winnipeg, in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, the C.N.R. and the C.P.R. have built branch after branch northward to serve new areas. Why has nothing of the sort been witnessed in Central and Northern British Columbia?

May not the answer to this question be found in the fact that railway construction in the more northern parts of the Prairie Provinces has assumed something of the aspect of a contest between the two great railway systems, each seeking to be first in occupying desirable territory and thus pre-empting the traffic to be developed there? In Central and Northern British Columbia there has been no such competition in extending transportation facilities. The Canadian Pacific does not enter that region at any point. It has no railway traversing the central part of the province, either from east to west or from south to north, which might serve as a basis for branch lines. The Canadian National has had, and has today, a monopoly of the whole region. In building branch roads for the opening up of undeveloped resources, it has concentrated its energies upon Northern Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, where it had a competitor in the field. Northern and Central British Columbia could wait. There was nothing urgent about occupying promising territory there, even within easy reach of construction. It was not even so urgent as the duplication of the coast ferry service or hotels in Halifax and Vancouver.

The desirability of creating in the northern half of this province a position of affairs which may lead to competition in the construction of branch lines is something which the Provincial Government might well bear in mind in considering the future disposal of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

Calvert township has introduced drastic municipal legislation affecting the right to vote. Hereafter only those who can show a clear tax receipt by December 14 of each year will be privileged to exercise the franchise. Moreover, tenants of premises on which taxes have not been paid will be refused the vote. The difficulty of this by-law will lie in enforcement since it probably will run counter to legislation governing municipalities in the province.

The British Labor Government has adopted a policy of reduced co-operation in promoting the welfare of Egypt. That country has a wider independence. It is significant that this condition has been marked by what The Cairo Sphinx describes as "growing unemployment, increasing beggary, smouldering discontent, while the poisonous seeds of Communist propaganda are falling in more fertile soil."

The British Labor Party, says Lord Melchett, is running in economic blinders. That would be all right if the winning of the race were decided on a circumscribed track. It is the human race, however, and the world is the race course. It is impossible to be blind in economic matters to what other nations are doing.

THE RISING GENERATION

(A writer in The London Times says that the rising generation "require expensive forms of entertainment to keep them from boredom.") The younger generation is indulging in a vain dream if it believes that it can escape boredom by means of "expensive forms of entertainment." They can do so, perhaps, if they are poor, because if they are poor, champagne and a dance at a great restaurant are to you as the release of Cinderella from her rags and ashes. Champagne is the perfect drink for those who cannot afford it; but, if you can afford it, what is it but a wine devoid of imaginative significance? A poor bored man might forget his miseries on the Riviera, but the rich bored man will find there the rich boring world he had left at home. I trust, then, that the wealthier members of the younger generation will not set too much store by expensive forms of entertainment. Let them rather, like Mr. Churchill, turn bricklayers, or take to good works, or give their money to those who would not be bored by it—Y. Y. in The New Statesman.

A flaw in a piece of white jade can be ground away, but for a flaw in speech nothing can be done; therefore be cautious as to what you say—Chinese.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Resolved to ruin or to rule the State.
—Dylan.

Someone has said that the voice of the people is the voice of God. We do not know who said that, whether it was said by an ancient philosopher or by a modern politician. At any rate, it is not a true saying—at least, it is not a universally true saying—being dependent on some extent upon the political point of view. The voice of the people expressed in our general election was, of course, the voice of Omnipotence from the political point of view of the Conservative Party. It was a voice from another place from the point of view of our friend Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King and all his devoted political adherents. Wherever the voice came from which spoke after the by-election in North Vancouver it was the voice of hope, and possibly of inspiration, to Premier Tolmie and his Government, and the voice of despair to our debonair and valiant friend Hon. T. D. Pattullo. And we believe the note of the voice sounded very pleasantly in the ears of the people of British Columbia, who are somewhat weary of political feuds and controversies and long for a respite and for a period of settled and progressive government.

If it was the voice of God which spoke in the general election in the United States—for it was practically a general election, although it is not so called by the free and independent politicians of the great country—it was a voice which spoke in halting and uncertain accents. The election certainly did not clarify the uncertain political situation which has prevailed over there for two years. The election was practically a deadlock on every issue confronting the country. There will be a deadlock in both the Senate and the House of Representatives and a deadlock on the issue of Prohibition. The elective chambers will be deadlocked if they attempt to pass legislation, and the President will be impotent if he submits to Congress important legislative measures. Thus it would appear that democratic forms of government are not the most effective forms of government. There seems to be little doubt that a majority of the people of the United States would like to wash their hands of Prohibition but they cannot perform such ablutions for their solid hands are bound by the constitution. And Prohibition cannot be enforced even with the assistance a Canadian Government was so generous and self-sacrificing as to give them.

Surely it could not have been the voice of God which spoke after the late election in Great Britain, where the flower of democracy is flourishing in greater luxuriance and giving forth a more pungent odor even than in the United States, the alleged birthplace of democracy. In the universal realm, where the true voice of Omnipotence rules, there is perfect order. There the form of procedure never changes from day to day, from year to year, nor from century to century. In the beginning the Creator looked at the work of His hands, and pronounced it perfect. The voice of the people is not the voice of God, neither is the work of the hands of the people, looking at the matter from either a political or practical point of view, an expression of the will of the Omnipotent.

The voice of the people has spoken, and there is a terrible political mess in the United States. The same voice spoke in the name of the people of Great Britain a year and a half ago, and there is a worse political mess there than there is in the United States. The hand of the United States Government, however, is tied, and it cannot stir the mess up and make it worse. The hands of the British Government are not bound. The hands of some of the political elements which are keeping the British Government in power are not bound by either conscientious or patriotic scruples. The Press Barons are stirring the mess up and making it worse. Mr. Lloyd George is stirring up the mess in the pot with a long spoon, watching and waiting for the brew to boil over, and hoping to make both political and personal profit out of the anticipated explosion.

The present leader of the British Liberal party is a man of many wonderful parts, but he has split up the Liberal party, and his leadership has been repudiated by some of the most prominent and most highly respected members of that party. Sir John Simon has put patriotism above party and declared that he cannot follow his leader into the division lobbies of the House of Commons as a supporter of the Socialist Government. Sir John will never repudiate the principles of Free Trade, but he has repudiated a leader who appears to be ready to repudiate all the principles of Liberalism and keep a discredited Government in power until conditions become more favorable for the prospects of a Liberal party which is even more discredited and distrusted than the ruling Socialist party. Democracy since the days it reached full flower has achieved few triumphs in any country.

Federation for Blind President Re-elected

HAMILTON, Nov. 7.—P. E. Layton, of Montreal, was re-elected president of the Canadian Federation for the Blind at the concluding session of the fifth annual convention here. D. Baxter Lawley, of Toronto, was appointed as traveling organizing secretary of the federation.

The federation decided to hold its next convention at Montreal. Pension matters were discussed, and a resolution was adopted, providing for payments to the blind over forty years of age and the unemployable blind over twenty-one years of age.

The appointment of a national advisory council to deal with a request relative to the welfare of the blind was advocated in another resolution, which met with approval.

GOOD NEWS

A friend called on me yesterday. To tell me her good news. At last, good things have come her way. Dame Fortune long forgot to pay. But now she smiles; and we smile. It really is good news!

I feel so happy, still today. To know of her good news! At last, the mists have blown away. For hope, fulfilled, hath come to stay. And Love's reunion makes us gay— It really is good news!

My friend! Long may each single day Bring you but real good news; And, ever smiling on your way Toward good fortune and good pay; May you be always happy, gay, And only hear good news!

RUBY GOLD

A ruby sunset stains the distant hills,
And the sky is tinted gold and rose!
An Autumn breeze across the harbor blows
And hushes all the landscape's noise.
Within my heart, that echoes with glad thrills,
Just one lone, sadly-solemn memory thrills.
A shadow I would fain forget, that owes
Its source to far-back days and daffodils.

She wore them, in her blue dress, safely pinned;
Held by my ruby brooch—and both from me.
Who loved her; halcyon days, in Love's campaign,
Long passed! Could Time the years rescind?
So many, that it seems Eternity, I'd crave the boon to give those gifts, again!

WHEN STARS UNFOLD
When stars bloom out against the sky,
As lilacs on blue waters lie;
When they unfold
Their petals gold
And drift on night's tranquillity.
Then is man's thoughts most calm and pure,
Hope then is most serene and sure.
When stars shine out,
Bright stars that evermore endure.
For peace like incense fills the night,
Released on rays of starry light;
Life holds no fear
And heaven bends near
As far worlds lends us their delight.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF HOSPITAL GREETED

Dr. A. K. Haywood, Medical Head of Vancouver General Hospital, Assumes Duties on Mainland

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—Official welcome to Dr. A. K. Haywood, new general superintendent of Vancouver General Hospital and medical adviser to the British Columbia Government, was extended last night at a dinner given by the board of directors in the staff room of the hospital and attended by representatives of the Provincial Government, city, medical and hospital associations and other representative bodies.

Dr. H. W. Riggs, vice-chairman of the board, presided in the absence from the city of F. J. Burd, chairman. Addresses of welcome were given by Hon. S. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary, who greeted Dr. Haywood on behalf of the Government; Alderman J. J. McRae, who extended the welcome of the city of Vancouver; J. H. McVey, representing the British Columbia and Western Hospital Associations, and H. T. Devine, dean of the board of directors.

TRIBUTE TO PREDECESSORS

In expressing his appreciation, Dr. Haywood paid high tribute to the work of his predecessors, Dr. Bell. The loyalty to the chair of the hospital, which he had found since his arrival, he declared, was in itself a tribute to the personality and hard work of Dr. Bell.

The new superintendent told his audience that he could not promise to perform miracles. He could not even promise to get rid of the hospital deficit. The hospital, Dr. Haywood pointed out, was daily caring for 300 charity patients. As long as this was the case it could hardly be expected to cut the deficit.

EXPENSES MAY INCREASE

"It can be done, but at the cost of efficiency," he declared. He warned his listeners that they might even find expenses going up under his regime.

That Dr. Haywood would be able to give service not only to Vancouver, but to British Columbia as a whole was the opinion expressed by Mr. Howe, who bespoke the co-operation of the Provincial Government. Since Dr. Haywood was to act as an adviser in medical matters to the Government, the Government was especially interested in him, this speaker said.

UNEMPLOYED PLANNING TO TAKE THEIR CASE TO LIEUT.-GOVERNOR

In the belief that the efforts of the City Council to provide work for unemployed men in Victoria have not succeeded in giving the desired relief, a committee of six of the Unemployed Association was appointed at a meeting of that organization yesterday morning to take their case to Lieutenant-Governor R. Randolph Bruce at Government House.

The meeting, which was held in a vacant room on Langley Street, opposite the Employment Bureau, was addressed by William Moulton, J. Forbes and others. Mr. Moulton intimated the situation was becoming serious and that he had told the council another $100,000 was needed to care for the jobless. Criticism was leveled at the City Council, the newly-opened cordwood camp and the public works committee of the council.

Letters to the Editor

No letter to the editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception.

WEAR A POPPY

Sir—May I ask the privilege of appearing through your columns to the people of Victoria and the district round to give their warm support to the Armistice Period Committee's sale of wreaths and poppies on Saturday, November 8.

The Armistice Period Committee and the Red Cross Society are working together in this matter, for a very large part of the work of the Red Cross throughout British Columbia is devoted to helping sick or disabled veterans who have no pensions, and the widows and children of veterans who have "passed on."

The proceeds of our sales, after paying for the wreaths and poppies, which are made in the Red Cross Workshop here by badly disabled men (in 1929 nearly $2,000 was thus paid for them), will be divided between the Red Cross Society and the Armistice Period Committee here in Victoria, in an agreed upon proportion.

In Vancouver the two bodies are appealing separately. The Veterans' Association here are carrying out their Poppy Day sales now. The Red Cross at Vancouver will hold their campaign later on. But their aims are the same as ours. The only distinction is that Victoria, Vancouver, and other places, while giving local relief, also contribute to Red Cross work throughout the Province, while the Veterans' organizations work locally.

I can therefore confidently appeal to our fellow citizens for their support on this Saturday. Anyone who gives a subscription, however small, at Poppy Day headquarters on Port Street, or who buys a wreath or a poppy, is thereby materially helping either to give employment to a badly disabled veteran, or to help the family of a sick and out of work veteran who has no pension, or to assist the widow or other dependents of a soldier who has given his life for his country.

It is perhaps right to add that we receive no grant whatever from any government or any municipal or other public body. The Veterans' Associations are themselves subscribing liberally.

Husband and Wife Both Relieved

All Credit Goes to Dodd's Kidney Pills

"I have used Dodd's Kidney Pills for backache and they sure did me a lot of good," writes Mrs. J. A. Kunze, Box 232, Herbert, Sask. "My husband used them last winter after he had the flu which left him with such a backache that he was unable to get up. After taking two and one-half boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills he was completely relieved."

Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys in good condition to do their work of cleansing and purifying the blood. Round kidneys mean pure blood. Pure blood means good health. Weak, nervous, run-down women should give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial at once.

THREE ARRESTED ON CHARGES OF FORGERY

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Three men, one a teller of the Bank of the United States, were arrested last night on charges of forgery, which police said had netted them $25,000 since May.

They were Samuel Glauber, twenty-two, employed at the bank's Brooklyn branch; Reubin Roganteky, twenty-three, salesman, and Alberta Movie, twenty-four, said to own a restaurant in Monticello, N.Y.

Government Thinks Order Is Established in Brazil

Provisional Administration in South American Republic Satisfied It Has Effectually Put Down Sources of Potential Disorder—Communists Shot

By JOHN W. WHITE
(Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Daily News Foreign Service.)

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 7.—With the shooting of fifty Communists in Rio Janeiro and the departure in an airplane at dawn today of General Juarez Tavora, Minister of Public Works, as personal representative of provisional President Dr. Getulio Vargas, to pacify the Northern States, the provisional Government believes that it has effectually put down the centres of opposition which hitherto have existed as sources of potential disorder.

The situation in Rio Janeiro has returned to normal. The sailors who have been on police duty on downtown street corners from dark until dawn were withdrawn yesterday and their places last night were taken by the unarmed civil policemen, who policed the city before the revolution. The heavy artillery guards have been withdrawn from the public buildings, and only sentinels are now on duty.

THE MONROE PALACE

Although the decree dissolving Congress has not yet been issued, the Monroe Palace, in which the Senate holds its sessions, yesterday was turned over as quarters to two battalions of Northern troops that have just arrived.

Dr. Vargas, in an interview with newspapermen yesterday, "at the Casteiro Palace, reiterated his intention to remove all artificial restrictions from coffee sales and exports, and to abolish all other protective measures for industry and production. One of the most important reforms announced is the abolishing of the trust agreement among Brazilian coastwise shipping companies whereby they have kept the rates so high that it is often cheaper to import from Europe than from neighboring Brazilian states. Dr. Vargas intends to group all the coastwise companies under one Government controller, who will assign them non-competing routes, reduce the rates and control them much as American railroad administration was handled during the war.

WILL BE DEPORTED

The property of Dr. Washington Luis, deposed president, is to be confiscated in order to reimburse partially the national treasury for alleged illegal disbursements during his regime. He will then be deported.

The provisional Government has been recognized by seven governments: Mexico, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, Uruguay, Italy and Portugal.

COMMERCIAL FIRM CHOIR IS FORMED

Messrs. David Spencer's Employees Organize Musically—To Sing Christmas Carols in Store

The local musical horizon contains promise of still further good things in the near future, for just recently has been organized the David Spencer choir, made up of employees of the well-known firm of the name.

On Tuesday evening, at the monthly social which was instituted as part of the society's programme, a very satisfactory practice was held by the choir, when "Linden Lea," "Beleguard," "Good Night, Beleguard," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," and other numbers which are under preparation were sung. The quality of work which is being done, even at this early stage of the choir's career, augurs well for the quality of entertainment which they will give when they make their first public appearance, which will be some time in January, it is stated.

The choir has a membership of over fifty voices, with the following officers: Honorary president, J. W. Spencer; honorary vice-president, J. W. Spencer; president, F. G. Harper; vice-president, H. Nancarrow; secretary, Miss Bryant; treasurer, G. D. Christie; committee, T. Ross, J. Donaldson, J. S. Aikens and Mrs. L. Campbell.

Major W. H. Watts is the conductor.

The activities are not to be confined to one or two public concerts per annum. Already it is announced that the choir will compete in the commercial class of the B.C. Musical Festival in the Spring.

From a general public standpoint another projected activity is of special interest, for the choir hopes to emulate the example of the David Spencer choir in Vancouver by singing carols through the Victoria store for fifteen minutes after the opening hour each morning during Christmas week.

Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening in the employees' luncheon room in the Spencer Building.

The choir is rich in the possession of unusually fine vocal material, among the singers being several festival medal winners.

Capt. T. Wilson Killed By Fall From Housetop

His many friends in Victoria will be shocked to hear of the tragic death of Captain Tom Wilson, who was killed yesterday by a fall from a roof in Seattle. Captain Wilson had been a resident of Seattle for many years.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. J. W. Switzer, Mrs. J. McCluskey, and Mrs. E. Wilson, all of 1329 Cook Street, Victoria. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Obituary

LINDSEY—Funeral services for the late John Lindsey, who passed away in this city on November 4, were held yesterday morning from the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home, Rev. H. R. Baker officiated and interment was made in Ross Bay Cemetery. The following acted as pallbearers: T. Halliday, P. Lyall, D. McKennie and J. Jones.

WOOD—The funeral of Mary Agnes Wood, who died on Monday at her home, Gordon Head, took place yesterday from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. J. H. Armstrong took the service, at which the hymns sung were "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Rock of Ages." There were many flowers. The pallbearers were W. J. Williamson, Percy Wallis, S. Pollock, Thomas Walker, G. A. Vantage and W. T. Somers. Burial was in Ross Bay Cemetery.

DOYLE—The funeral of John Doyle will take place from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. B. A. Bastin will officiate. Interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park. Mr. Doyle, in 1866, when recruited, was being called on account of the threatened invasion by the Fenians, joined the No. 2 Troop Canadian Cavalry, at London, Ont. The funeral will be strictly private.

NICHOLAS—The funeral of Edward Nicholas, who passed away on November 4 at Sidney, was held yesterday afternoon, proceeding from the parlors of the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home to the Metropolitan United Church, where service was held at 2:30 o'clock. There were many friends present and beautiful floral tributes were received. Rev. O. M. Sanford, Rev. Dr. C. T. Scott and Rev. Thomas Keyworth officiated at the service, during which the hymns, "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Forever With the Lord" were sung. Mrs. Keyworth and Mrs. Chesworth rendered a duet, "Some Day the Silver Cord Will Break." Among the ministers present were Rev. H. R. Baker, Rev. J. Sharp, Rev. William Elliott, Rev. Dr. W. C. Wilson, Rev. James Hood and Rev. Hugh Nixon. At the conclusion of the service Edward Parsons, organist, played the "Dead March in Saul." Interment was made in the family plot at Royal Oak Burial Park, with the following

HARRY A. ROSS PASSES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Popular Citizen Lived in Victoria for Past Twenty-Seven Years

After a prolonged illness, Harry A. Ross, resident director of A. E. Ames & Company, Limited, and for many years a well known figure in Victoria, died yesterday at his home at 2031 Runnymede Avenue.

Mr. Ross was born at Port Hope and came to Victoria in the year 1903, when he took the position of secretary-treasurer of the Vancouver Portland Cement Company. He has always been a popular figure in this city and was a member of the Union Club and the Victoria Golf Club.

Mr. Ross is survived by his wife, who was Miss Jennie Butchart before her marriage, and by his son Ian.

The funeral will take place quietly today from the B.C. Funeral Parlors and it is particularly requested that no flowers shall be sent.

WILL DECORATE MAIN RETAIL STREETS FOR CHRISTMAS SEASON

At a meeting of the retail section of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning, decision was reached to decorate the main business streets of the city for the Christmas season. The plan adopted will be largely along the lines used in past years, the offer of George A. Savory being accepted for carrying it into effect.

In the scheme of decoration this year, the placing of trees at the lamp posts will be eliminated. Instead of this, there will be a festooning with evergreens.

The meeting yesterday was presided over by J. W. Maynard, the chairman of the retail section.

"PENMANIZE YOUR UNDERWEAR BUYING!"

Be Sure Your Underwear is the right type and weight!

If all men's requirements were the same, underwear manufacturers would need to make only one style and weight.

Different types of men, however, require different kinds of underwear.

Do you know the type best calculated to keep you warm and healthy, yet comfortable and free of movement? Perhaps you are not using just the right kind of underwear for your particular case.

Let Penmans help you decide!

Our experience of over 62 years is at your service. Look over the chart and find the Penmans line of underwear that just fits your needs.

Then, buy it by the number, and say "Penmans"—to be sure of getting the warmth and quality and wear that have made the name famous since Confederation.

Ladies! A Word to You!!

Bring this new idea to the attention of the men of your family. You're interested, of course, in keeping them well and comfortable.

Look over the chart yourself. Perhaps you can help with a decision that will mean much to the health and well-being of those whose health and well-being mean everything to you.

For fine quality, sterling worth and long life there is no underwear quite so good as

LOOK OVER THIS CHART

Among the types of health underwear listed below, is your kind—the one best fitted to take care of your individual needs.

You'll find it in a moment. Then, if you order it, you'll enjoy exceptional comfort and protection this winter.

Every Penmans garment is full size, well-tailored and easy fitting.

MEDIUM

Penmans No. 95 is the finest natural Merino underwear made. For fifty years Canada's most popular medium weight. Gives healthful protection in coldest weather, yet is not too heavy for indoor wear. Penmans No. 71 is an excellent natural Merino at somewhat lower cost for men who do not desire underwear of No. 95 quality.

LIGHT

Penmans light weight pure wool underwear is the highest grade made in the world. Ivory in tone. Light, yet very warm and comfortable. Recommended for those who work indoors, yet need sufficient protection to guard them from chills when they are outdoors.

HEAVIEST

Penman's Serviceable Scotch Knit. A good heavy grade for outdoor workers or in districts subject to severe cold weather in winter. Has the weight and the warmth, without too much bulk.

FLEECE-LINED

For those requiring maximum protection, we recommend Penmans No. 37. Extra heavy and fleece-lined. Suitable for outdoor workers. The soft cotton fleece next to the skin makes it most comfortable to wear. Durability unexcelled.

BALBRIGGAN

No. 222, 223 and 46 are extremely light cotton underwear suitable only for those who keep warm easily, are immune to colds and not liable to chills from sudden temperature changes. Not recommended for any but those accustomed to wear very light undergarments all year around. Made in short or long sleeve and leg lengths.

FINE ELASTIC RIB COTTON

For those who require warmth and ample protection, yet do not prefer woolen underwear, we recommend a choice from the various Penmans fine elastic rib cotton lines. Easy-fitting and durable-made in all the different styles.

In addition to the above, there are many other lines of Penman's Health Underwear from which you may choose.

RECKLESS FLYING WAS RESPONSIBLE
---------------------------------	--

Pilot Engaged in Aerobatics Contrary to Air Regulations When Crash Occurred
---	--

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The airplane accident which cost the lives of three persons, Harry Teggart and Misses Jean and Catherine McColl, at Toronto last Sunday, was "directly attributable to the dangerous and reckless flying of the pilot," according to the official report of the investigators who inquired into it. The report was issued by the Civil Air Branch of the Department of National Defence this evening.

It says in part: "The result of the investigation by the Department of National Defence into the accident shows a Canadian-licensed pilot, Harry Teggart, was flying an American-licensed airplane without the permission of the owner of the aircraft but with the consent of the American pilot in charge of it. Mr. Teggart was carrying passengers for a pleasure flight, and was engaged in aerobatics contrary to air regulations. The weather was dull, with clouds at approximately 10,000 feet, and general rain. Of necessity, flying had to be carried out at a low altitude, and aerobatics attempted at such a low altitude are considered both reckless and dangerous."

GOOD OLD DAYS RECALLED HERE

Original Members of Crews of First Canadian Naval Craft Hold Reunion

OLD ACQUAINTANCES ARE AGAIN RENEWED

Days, often referred to by the many speakers as "the good old days" when H.M.C.S. Rainbow and H.M.C.S. Niobe, Canada's first war craft, were stationed at Esquimalt and Halifax respectively, were dramatically recalled last night at a reunion dinner of original members of the crews, held in the clubrooms of the Naval Veterans branch of the Canadian Legion, Johnson and Broad Streets. Men who had pioneered Canada's navy twenty years ago, separated in their civilian occupations long since, reunited for the first time and recalled many happy moments of the days gone by, and renewed old acquaintances.

Following the toast to The King, which was proposed by the chairman and signally honored, J. Addison, one of the members of the crew of H.M.C.S. Rainbow, proposed the toast to that cruiser. J. J. Bligh, in responding, gave a brief resume of the ship's voyage from Portsmouth on August 18, until its arrival at Esquimalt at 9:30 o'clock on the morning of November 7, 1910. The voyage covered a distance of 18,000 miles and took eighty days to complete.

In proposing the toast to the Provisional Government of 1910, Major F. V. Longstaff paid a tribute to the Legislature of that time and the late Sir Richard McBride, then Premier of British Columbia.

Attorney-General Harry Pooley also told of the early days at Esquimalt, and paid a tribute to the foresight of the late Sir Richard McBride. He also proposed a toast to absent friends.

The toast to the City Council of Victoria in 1910 was sponsored by A. Christie, of H.M.C.S. Rainbow, and replied to by Ex-Alderman Angus McKee.

A. Milne proposed a toast to H.M.C.S. Niobe and W. DeGruchy responded. The toast to the B.C. Historical Society was sponsored by J. C. Ockley and replied to by Major F. V. Longstaff. Attorney-General Pooley paid a tribute to the excellent work being done by Commodore Hogg and the toast was signally honored.

E. S. Mitchell, president of the Naval Veterans, made an appeal to the ex-naval men to join the branch of which he had the honor to be president. J. Whitcombe, toastmaster, performed his duties in his usual capable manner.

The cheerful spirit evinced by the disabled men who were provided with remunerative employment at the Red Cross Workshop, made a great impression on His Worship, who expressed his admiration for the manner in which seriously disabled men faced and conquered what appeared to be insuperable difficulties.

Commencing at 5 o'clock this afternoon a broadcast program in character will be given by the H. J. Heinz Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., over the National Broadcasting Company chain, including Seattle KOMO. This mammoth broadcast will include speeches by Honorable Herbert Hoover, President of the United States; Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways; and Honorable Charles Nagel, former United States Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

At 5 p.m. the employees of the H. J. Heinz Company throughout the world will listen to this broadcast at banquets being held specially for this purpose. The speakers of the Pittsburgh broadcast, celebrating the sixty-first anniversary of the company and the dedication of a new auditorium and service building at the home plant, will be transmitted to London and re-broadcast there and picked up by receivers at banquets being held at all Heinz branches in Great Britain. Comments are also being made to pick up the programme broadcast over the short wave stations in far-off Sydney, Australia, and Wellington, New Zealand, so they too may sit down and listen with the rest of the world.

Mr. W. G. Dyer and Mr. R. Bramley, Heinz representatives in Victoria, left last evening to attend the Heinz banquet being held today at the Vancouver Hotel.

The Pacific Coast liner will hear this splendid programme through stations KOMO, Seattle; KOA, Denver; KFI, Los Angeles; KGO, Oakland; KGW, Portland; KSL, Salt Lake City; KPSP, San Diego; KPO, San Francisco; KHQ, Spokane, and KNECA, Los Angeles.

RECKLESS FLYING WAS RESPONSIBLE

Pilot Engaged in Aerobatics Contrary to Air Regulations When Crash Occurred

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The airplane accident which cost the lives of three persons, Harry Teggart and Misses Jean and Catherine McColl, at Toronto last Sunday, was "directly attributable to the dangerous and reckless flying of the pilot," according to the official report of the investigators who inquired into it. The report was issued by the Civil Air Branch of the Department of National Defence this evening.

It says in part: "The result of the investigation by the Department of National Defence into the accident shows a Canadian-licensed pilot, Harry Teggart, was flying an American-licensed airplane without the permission of the owner of the aircraft but with the consent of the American pilot in charge of it. Mr. Teggart was carrying passengers for a pleasure flight, and was engaged in aerobatics contrary to air regulations. The weather was dull, with clouds at approximately 10,000 feet, and general rain. Of necessity, flying had to be carried out at a low altitude, and aerobatics attempted at such a low altitude are considered both reckless and dangerous."

City & District

Discusses Road Matters — Lorne Campbell, managing superintendent of the West Kootenay Light & Power Company, was in the city yesterday in connection with road matters at Nelson, which he discussed with Hon. R. W. Bruhn, Minister of Public Works.

Council Makes Donation — Responding to a strong appeal made Thursday night by ex-Sergeant W. Crouch and Rev. M. J. Bruce, the Saanich Council last night unanimously decided to make a donation of $100 to the combined drive for the Red Cross and the Armistice period committee.

Committee Named — Messrs. J. Whitcombe, DeGruchy, Martin and Christie were named at last night's dinner as a committee to draw up plans for the second reunion of members of H.M.C.S. Rainbow and H.M.C.S. Niobe. The function next to be held on Trafalgar Day, October 24.

Care Wanted — An appeal was put out yesterday by members of the executive of the Armistice Period-Red Cross committee for cars to take taggers to outside points. Those wishing to volunteer for this work are asked to be at the Armistice Period-Red Cross headquarters, Port and Broad Streets, at 10 o'clock this morning.

Addresses Regiment — Lieutenant-Colonel Birch, secretary of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association, addressed members of the 5th B.C. Coast Brigade (C.A.) at the Armistice last night, on rifle shooting. The speaker gave a brief resume of the work done by the Dominion body and complimented the unit on providing the winner of the Governor-General's Medal, Major Fred Richardson, O.B.E., at Coughton Ranges, Ottawa, this year.

Mayor Chatting with Disabled Veterans — Visits Red Cross Workshop and Witnesses Making of Poppies for Armistice

Mayor Ansonbom paid a visit to the Red Cross Workshop yesterday, and spent a considerable time chatting with the disabled veterans and watching them at work on their various tasks. It was not His Worship's first visit, but he still found cause for surprise at the great variety of work which disabled men can perform when opportunity offers. He was particularly gratified to learn that from eight to twelve men had been constantly employed making wreaths and poppies during the past twelve months, and expressed his pleasure when told that the wages paid for this branch alone was approximately $5,000.

DR. DAVIES SPEAKS ON EUROPEAN TOUR

Lecture on Recent Tour Illustrated by Beautiful Photographic Slides

Illustrated by a number of beautiful photographic slides, Rev. Dr. Clem Davies gave a fascinating lecture on "Innocents Abroad" in the Cridge Memorial Hall last night. Dr. Davies outlined his recent trip to Europe.

Dr. Davies' party had visited Naples, and the speaker described the legend inseparable from the Church of Our Lord in this city, and also the magnificence of the famous Blue Grotto on the Isle of Capri. "After you have been in Rome for a few hours," continued Dr. Davies, "you feel that this has been your city for all time."

The speaker drew attention to the colossal proportions of St. Peter's Cathedral, and showed slides of the Vatican—the place of a thousand rooms—where there were passages one mile long, flanked by magnificent statues, because the people had bargained themselves to give to the church.

Views were shown of the monument to Garibaldi and of the tombs of the English poets, Keats and Shelley. The Coliseum, with its capacity for seating 50,000 people, said the speaker, was the world's most magnificent ruin.

Dr. Davies then took his hearers, by the way of Alps, to Oberammergau, where the "Innocents Abroad" had been privileged to witness the famous Passion Play in a village, which the speaker explained, was approximately the size of Duncan.

Dr. Davies was introduced by Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., and was accorded a warm welcome by an audience which packed the Cridge Memorial Hall.

Just Roamin' Around

By TWO ROVERS

Besides—Rover and I felt like taking a day off. So, we did; and there do you suppose we went? You'd never guess, so I might as well tell you.

Long ago, before Rover or I ever dreamed we were coming to Victoria, we lived in a town which both heartily disliked so much, and which we greatly rejoiced in leaving; that now we never so much as mention its name. Rover, especially, is particular not to refer to it.

But there were some delightful people there, just kindness itself, brotherly and sisterly, good to Rover and myself, and yet, but this is not the place for our kick. Amongst the number there, whom we can never forget, was a radiant example of true womanhood, ever obliging, ever thoughtful for others, ever kindly to those in trouble and distressed, sympathetic to

Famous Singer and Her Three Sisters

DAME Clara Butt, the world-famous contralto singer, met and had lunch with her three sisters in London last week. It was the first time they had all dined together for twelve years. The picture above shows the happy quartette after their meeting. The group comprises, left to right: Mrs. E. Argent, Ethel Butt, Clara Butt; and Mrs. Percy Hemling, Hazel Gray, now teaching singing in England. Before Dame Clara Butt achieved fame, the four appeared on the concert platform as a quartette. Dame Clara Butt has now left England on an extensive tour of the Far East.

On Brief Visit
Mrs. E. Nunn has returned to her home in Vancouver after a brief visit in the city.

Women of Fashion
Wear Fresh Flowers

Florists are rejoicing in the latest edict of Fashion, says an article in The Toronto Saturday Night. "Your flowers must be real," is the decree in which we see the revival of yet another old and charming style.

The tailored suit, the afternoon gown, and the evening dress, all are blossoming like gardens.

In the season's evening styles, the orchid, so long supreme in fashion, has ceded its prestige to hardier blossoms. Every flower that grows finds a place in the sun, or rather in the electric lights. Even the fashionables who plan their flowers as a definite and required color note in the costume, instead of merely a graceful addition. Roses, chrysanthemums, especially the smaller varieties, and even asters daisies, are stepping out to evening affairs.

One of the new changes rung on this fashion was noticed recently when two brilliant red carnations were seen, fastened saucily enough to the black astrakhan muff—purple of their wearers. A red blouse echoed the color note in an otherwise completely black outfit.

Another costume of bright blue cloth trimmed with grey astrakhan had a bunch of tiny pink roses and forget-me-nots pinned to its accompanying muff—the very essence of the mauve decade.

Shower for Bride-to-Be
NANAIMO, Nov. 7.—The ladies of Extension held a miscellaneous shower in the church last evening, in honor of Miss Alice Quigley, who is to be married at 2 o'clock this afternoon to Mr. William Daves, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Daves, Northfield. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many useful and costly gifts.

The winners of the various games were: First, Mrs. J. Bramley, Miss Grace Anderson, Mrs. Mario and Mrs. Holland; consolation, Miss Laurison, Mrs. R. Sherwood, Mrs. Mayovsky and Mrs. Nelson.

The party broke up with the fifty guests present wishing Miss Quigley much happiness in her future life, and singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Hustlers' Club
A dance and frolic will be held by the Hustlers' Club at the K. of H. Hall, North Park Street, on Tuesday evening. There will be special decorations and prizes will be given. The proceeds will be donated to charity. Last year the Protestant Orphanage was helped by the clubmen.

TODAY'S RECIPE

ENGLISH MUFFINS—Two cups scalded milk, one and one-half teaspoons salt, four tablespoons sugar, one egg, one-quarter cup warm water, six cups flour (enough to make a very soft dough), four tablespoons shortening. Scald milk, add salt, sugar and fat, and cool. When lukewarm, add the softened yeast. Add flour enough to make a very soft dough. Knead lightly on a floured board until smooth and elastic. Work down, and when light again, roll out to one-quarter-inch thickness. Cut in circles. When light bake on ungreased hot griddle. As soon as they are brown on one side, turn them over. When both sides are browned, bake more slowly until finished. They may be browned on griddle and put into the oven to finish baking.

Welsh Society Holds Its Annual Bazaar

The Victoria Cymrodorion Society's annual bazaar was held in St. David's Hall on Wednesday, Mrs. J. Hinchliffe opened the bazaar at 3 p.m. and complimented the society on the splendid effort. It had put forth and hoped that the week would be successful and profitable. Miss Beatrice Gardner presented Mrs. Hinchliffe with a bouquet of flowers, after which Mrs. W. Cadogan Williams sang "Yn Iach i Cymru." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Gladys Kinsey. Those in charge of the stalls were: Mrs. W. Williams, Miss Alice Williams, Mrs. Targett, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. W. Jones, Miss Enid Targett, Mrs. Griffiths, Mrs. Kempton, Mrs. June, Mrs. T. C. Jones, Mrs. Bowden, Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Glass and Mr. Vivian James. Mr. and Mrs. Gurney were in charge of the contest. Those in charge of the refreshments were Mesdames James Thomas, C. Veness, M. Lewis, J. C. Williams and W. H. Gardner. Mrs. R. T. Williams, convener, thanked all who had contributed to the success of the bazaar. In the evening a concert was held with the following items: Piano solo, Miss Phyllis Baylis; humorous monologue, Mrs. H. Hollins; vocal solo, Mr. Bell; horn solo, Master Albert Stevens; recitation, Mr. H. Hollins; piano solo, Mr. D. W. Phillips; vocal trio, Mesdames J. C. Williams, J. Hobden and J. Jones; solos by Mrs. Hobden and Mrs. J. C. Williams. The next meeting of the society will be held on Friday, when motion pictures will be shown by the president.

COLLEGE STUDENTS TESTED FOR ANNUAL PLAY IN JANUARY

The first "try-out" for the purpose of selecting material for the Victoria College annual play, to be given some time about the second week in January, took place yesterday afternoon at the College under the immediate direction of Major Bullock-Webster, of the B.C. Dramatic School. About seventy-five students competed for the fifteen places which have to be filled, and additional "try-outs" will have to be held before the parts are definitely cast. The play which has been chosen is "Yellow Sands," by Adelaide and Eden Philpotts.

WILL SHOW MODEL OF THE HOLY LAND

Everyone cannot take a trip to Palestine, but the people of Victoria are being given a chance to see an exhibition which will recall the 6,000 miles of the Holy Land under one roof. Ganel Bros., international exhibitors, have brought to Victoria, at the old Cathedral, starting on Tuesday, their famous model in motion of the Holy Land and Life of Christ. Eleven years were spent in construction of this model. There are more than 1,100 figures in the model, most of them working portraying the parts of prominent Bible characters operated by electric motors.

Presentation Made to W.A. Church Worker

An interesting event in church life in the city took place on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. George E. Kirk, the president of St. John's W.A., was the honored guest at a birthday party held at the home of Mrs. L. Flint, Pandora Avenue, who was the hostess for the occasion. There was a large gathering of members who had met to do honor to Mrs. Kirk on the completion of nineteen years' service with St. John's W.A., and thirty-one years' service in the Dominion, having been connected previously with St. John's W.A. at Toronto and also at Lethbridge.

In a few words, appreciative of Mrs. Kirk's splendid work in connection with the W.A. for the past nineteen years, Mrs. Chadwick presented her with a beautiful leather hand bag, and little Margaret Burns gracefully presented Mrs. Kirk with a choice bouquet of pink carnations, the auxiliary colors, and Mrs. Flint, the hostess, with a corsage bouquet. Mrs. Kirk fittingly responded, referring to the work accomplished by the W.A. and the fellowship and sociability fostered by the co-operation of the members of this organization. Those present also expressed their appreciation of the kindness of Mrs. Flint in acting as hostess, to whose efforts, in a large measure, was due the success of the gathering.

Weddings

MACDONALD-HARRIS
A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. John's Church on Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, when Canon F. A. F. Chadwick united in marriage Joan Lankelly, eldest daughter of the late Mr. C. M. Harris and Mrs. L. Harris, of 1702 Belmont Avenue, and Martin John, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Macdonald, of New Waterford, Nova Scotia. The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Gliddon, a friend of the family, looked charming in a French model gown of white georgette with lace insets. Her veil, which was of embroidered net, was arranged in cap fashion and caught at the back with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. The only bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Kathleen Harris, who wore a dress of blue silk crepe with hat and shoes to match. She carried a sheaf of pink and white chrysanthemums. After a reception at the home of the bride, the happy couple left on the midnight boat for Vancouver, the bride traveling in a dress of cinnamon brown silk with hat and coat in matching shades.

VARLEY-CUTHBERT

The marriage has been arranged and will shortly take place between Gertrude Maud, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert, Giles Road, Keating, and Mr. John Leonard Varley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Varley, Yorkshire, England.

CENTENNIAL CHOIR TO SING CANTATA

Centennial Choir, on Tuesday, November 11, at 8 p.m., under the leadership of Mr. Frank Tupman, will render Maunders' cantata, "Song of Thanksgiving," at Belmont United Church.

The early part of the programme will consist of full choral numbers by the choir and selected solos and duets by members of the choir and assisting artists. The second part will be occupied by Maunders' "Song of Thanksgiving."

Maunders was at one time organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and several cantatas written by him have been enjoyed by Victoria music lovers. His "Song of Thanksgiving" is essentially written to portray the bounties of harvest, and is a fitting theme at this time. The solo parts have been assigned to the following well-known artists: Mesdames Frick, Eden, Locke and Tupman, and Messrs. J. Almond and W. Buckler. Mrs. Paul Green, organist at Centennial, will be the accompanist.

Ladies' Choir Feature

Znamensky, Baritone

The Victoria Ladies' Choir is featuring M. Znamensky, Russian baritone, at its first concert of the season on Thursday, November 13. The choir numbers have been chosen with great care, and subscribers and other patrons are assured of an interesting programme.

Vancouver Awarded 1932 Canadian Olympic Track and Field Trials

Amateur Union Heads Give Mainland City Important Gathering

Preparations of Vancouver Officials Simon-Pure Delegates—By-Laws Undergo Several Changes—Junior Athletes Limited

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—The 1932 Olympic track and field trials will be staged in Vancouver. Delegates attending the annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, now meeting here, today allocated the track and field events to this city after a lengthy discussion. Vancouver officials presented plans already completed for the holding of the trials in anticipation of receiving them, and generally impressed upon the delegates that track and field athletes were at such a stage now in British Columbia that nothing but success could attend the holding of the 1932 trials.

R. Bell, president of the Vancouver Olympic committee, a body formed to promote the erection of a huge stadium at a site already selected and to further interest in amateur athletics in Vancouver, told the gathering that not only were amateur officials here behind the project, but that the provincial and civil governments as well as the citizens at large were behind the project.

Late today discussion centered upon recommendations brought in by the rules and records committee, under the chairmanship of E. H. Bourdon, of Montreal, and the affiliations and alliances committee, under the chairmanship of W. A. Aldritt, of Winnipeg.

Aldritt reported that his committee had considered the application for affiliation from the Newfoundland Amateur Athletic Union. He said that the application had been given sympathetic consideration, but that nothing could be done about direct affiliation because Newfoundland was not a part of Canada, and as such could not come under the control of the Canadian A.A.U. He said, however, that the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada would work in close harmony with the Newfoundland body. His report in this respect was concurred in by the convention. Aldritt's committee also reported that endeavors be made to procure closer co-operation with athletic organizations not now directly affiliated with the main governing body.

BY-LAWS CHANGED
Chief amongst the recommendations brought in by Bourdon's committee were alterations in rules or by-laws of the union which would ask the change from the metric system of measuring in all track and field events to the English system. This was concurred in by the convention, as were the following: Batsmen dropped within ten yards on each side of the starting line in a relay race may be recovered by the succeeding runner; provision will be made for presenting diplomas to athletes who create new or equal existing Canadian records; in distance events exceeding five miles no competitor shall be allowed to start.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SERVICE

The service is all important because the points made on it are the only ones which count for you. That in itself constitutes the game's most offensive part. Although the serve as a stroke is defensive, since it must be hit below the waist, the actual play in the service point is offensive because you must go out after score. The function of the serve is merely to put the third into play. Do not forget the old adage, "well begun is half done." It is vital to serve well if it is the beginning of play. The other half which leads toward scoring depends on the rest of your equipment. It is what you do with what happens after your service that determines successful point winning. The object is to start the play with least disadvantage to the server and as much as possible to the receiver.

Study constantly the manner in which your service is returned. Note the effects of your various deliveries on your opponent. Arrange your play so that every shot will have a definite meaning. Each play or series of plays during service points must lead toward scoring.

ARSENAL TO MEET ASTON VILLA TODAY

English First Division Leaders Facing Stiff Battle at Highbury

WEDNESDAY TO TAKE ON LEEDS UNITED

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Soccer football fans will get one of the best treats so far this season when Arsenal and Aston Villa hook up in an English First Division match at Highbury tomorrow. Arsenal are out in front in the championship table by a mere point and a win for the Villa will wipe this out and put the Birmingham team on top. Doubtless the stands at Highbury will look as they do when a cup tie is in progress.

In the meantime, the Wednesday, bracketed with Aston Villa in second place on points, have a great chance to improve their own position. They go to Leeds, where they clash with the United team. It does not look as if there will be any complications in the Second Division. Everton, pace-setters, receive a visit from Wolverhampton Wanderers, a fighting club, but should win.

In the Scottish First Division a great tangle at the top of the table remains to be unraveled. Four clubs, Celtic, Partick Thistle, Motherwell and Dundee, are tied as points. None of these clubs are drawn together on Saturday, so it is possible that the struggle will wait for a later date to straighten out the ties. On form they should win all their games tomorrow.

COLLEGE WILL BE OUT AFTER THIRD VICTORY

Craigdarroch Fifteen to Face Scottish in Intermediate Rugby Fixture Today

BAYS TO CLASH WITH WANDERERS

Victoria College, undefeated leaders of the Intermediate Rugby League, will be out after their third straight victory this afternoon at the Victoria High School grounds when they stack up against Canadian Scottish. J.B.A.A. and Oak Bay Wanderers, two evenly matched squads, will occupy the spotlight at the Oak Bay Park in the second carded fixture. Both games will commence at 3 o'clock.

College should take the soldiers into camp, while the Bays-Wanderers game should be nip and tuck from start to finish. A win for the carmen will put them right on the heels of the collegians in the dash for the first half honors. Wanderers are strong and will be out fighting for victory to the end.

J.B.A.A. and Wanderers to Meet Monday
Line-ups follow:
College—Byrne, Darbyshire, May, Lees, Pearson, Outwhale, Blyth, B. Parker, Panch, Quinn, Hills, Stark, Todd, Murry, Tyrer and Hall.
Wanderers—Charlton, Williams, Denbigh, S. Jones, Pangman, J. Gann, Stewart, Crombie, Campbell, Dickinson, McGregor, Acland, Sturrock, Sharp and Greenlaid.
College—McInnes, Maboe, Miller, Boorman, Copeland, Menzies, Robinson, Moyes, Colgate, Crothall, Stevens, Davidson, Sprinkling, Carey and Wilson.

J.B.A.A.—Anderson, Osmund, Tobin, Parrott, Brown, Armstrong, Stephen, Blakey, Dunn, A. Osmund, George, Wray, Peard and Ford.

CITY TO WORKOUT

Victoria City senior football club will hold a practice this afternoon at the Central Park at 2:30 o'clock. All players are asked to be on hand.

Starts Heavyweight Campaign With Win

MIDDLEWEIGHT champion, who started his campaign for heavyweight recognition by winning a decision over Johnny Risko, hard-hitting Cleveland, in a ten-round bout at Detroit last night. Walker recently filed a challenge against Max Schmeling, heavyweight titleholder, and last night's bout was his first in the top division. Walker has several victories to his credit over light-heavyweights.

TORONTO AND QUEENS WILL CLASH TODAY

Twenty Thousand Expected to Watch Important Inter-collegiate Grid Tilt

HAMILTON TIGERS TO MEET MONTREAL

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Announcement of starting line-ups and departure of teams for visiting battlefields marked today's activities amongst Eastern Canada's major league football squads. Several of them are playing tomorrow in games that are the most "crucial" of the season.

The University of Toronto-Queens tussle is generally rated as the highlight of Saturday's programme. Apparently evenly matched, the opposing gridiron warriors are expected to provide more than twenty thousand fans at Varsity Stadium with an exciting exhibition of the Fall pastime.

The crowd will also likely see settled the college championship for another year.

In the record of the two teams to date, Varsity should emerge victors over their old rivals. The latter have been defeated only once this season, but it was the blue-and-white-clad students who marred Queen's record with that lone defeat at Kingston.

ARGOS TO MEET SENATORS
Argos leave today for Ottawa, where they meet the youthful Senators twelve on a frostbound gridiron there tomorrow. Both teams will be at full strength.

The Hamilton Tigers, fairly babbling over with confidence that another Big Four championship is within their grasp, held their final workout last night for the game against Montreal A.A.A., the team that held them to tie score two weeks ago. The winged wheelers will be minus the services of their star halfback, "Red" Teller, who has been ordered not to play on account of an attack on an official in the game against Argos at Toronto last Saturday.

Overseas the Montreal team will be at full strength.

Alex. Denman, Tiger husky wing line player, will return to the gridiron war, having recovered from an attack of boils. Altogether Tigers' chances of victory appear bright.

SPORT FISHERMEN TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

Meeting Called to Discuss Regulations and Make Recommendations to Be Presented to Minister
A monster meeting of sport fishermen will be held at the Chamber of Commerce next Thursday night at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Victoria and District Fish and Game Association. The meeting has been called to discuss sport fishing regulations in general, and to draw up recommendations which will be presented to the Federal Minister of Fisheries.

It is understood that recommendations will be advanced to set aside certain waters on the Island for fly fishing only; that license be issued at a nominal charge, the money to be used in bettering sport fishing generally; stricter enforcement of the existing code; a smaller limit per day, and a limit to the number of accumulated fish a person may have in possession at one time.

Man's other recommendations of vital to sport fishermen will be advanced.

The meeting will be an open one, and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Cubs Reported To Be Seeking Rhem and Lucas

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Growing reports of changes among the Chicago Cubs have it that Clint Rhem, veteran pitcher of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Charles "Red" Lucas, another veteran hurler from the Cincinnati Reds, would be purchased or obtained in trade.

With high hopes of lowering the colors of the undefeated Equinault soccer aggregation this afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park at 2:45 o'clock, in the first round of the Milton Cup series, Manager Doc Paynter, of the Victoria West eleven, will trot out two former members of the Five C's squad.

When the greenhorns take the field against the dockers, Ernie Harwood, who has turned in many a fine performance for the churchmen, will be fullback along with the youthful Bill Lloyd. On the left wing, in place of the flashy Pat Mulcahy, who is out of the city, will be Bob Shanks, at one time one of the mainstays of the C's.

Equinault will send their regular personnel against the Wests, and are confident of maintaining their unbeaten record in First Division football. Paynter's line-up for the game follows: Willoughby, Lloyd, Harwood, Stewart, Thompson, Williams, H. Youson, D'Arcy, Robinson, Milligan and Bob Shanks.

JOKERS TO PRACTISE
Jokers senior soccer eleven will hold a work-out this afternoon at Central Park at 2 o'clock. All members are asked to attend.

MIDDLEWEIGHT KING GIVES CLEVELANDER ARTISTIC DRUBBING

Walker Gives Away Thirty Pounds to Risko, But Scores Decisive Victory—"Baker Boy" Floored for Count of Nine in Second Session

19,000 Spectators Watch Furious Battle; Decision Proves Popular

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—Mickey Walker, champion of all the middleweights, boxed and slugged his way into a place among the contenders for the heavyweight championship by decisively defeating Johnny Risko in a ten-round bout at Olympic Arena tonight. "Standing room only" signs were out at Olympia as 19,000 persons acclaimed the "loy bulldog" in his first serious appearance against a heavyweight.

Overcoming a handicap of nearly thirty pounds, Walker jumped into the lead in the second round by sending Risko to the floor for a count of nine with a stinging left to the head. From then on he was always in front, with Risko trying desperately.

Walker varied his attack throughout the ten rounds, first trying for the body and then shifting to the head, and had Risko guessing.

MICKEY STAGGERS RISKO
In the third round, Mickey hurt the Cleveland brawler with a staggering left to the head, but Risko hung on until his head cleared and soon was slugging with Walker in midring.

Johnny sent Mickey's head back with a right to the jaw in the fourth round, but the little man refused to back away and soon was wading in with a terrific attack of his own.

Walker weighed 166 and Risko 193-4.

After exchanging rights to the head in the fifth round, Risko backed Walker into the ropes and tried hard for a knockout, but the middleweight champion refused to go down.

The sixth round was a bad one for Risko. At the start Mickey sent him back on his heels with a left to the jaw, took two hard lefts in return, and then they sagged a slugging in the centre of the ring which had the crowd on its feet. After a momentary clinch they continued along the same lines and the bell found them slugging.

Both men seemed to be tiring, as the pace slowed up a bit in the next round. Mickey, however, was the fresher of the two, and managed to take the round.

The last two rounds were fast, with Risko trying to score a knockout. He chased Mickey to the ropes, and landed a flurry of lefts and righting, however, slipped over a left uppercut which made Risko go into a clinch just before the bell.

Risko shook Mickey with lefts and rights to the jaw in the last round and forced him to miss a hard right uppercut. They were engaged in another furious exchange as the bell ended the fight. The decision was popularly received.

Walker weighed 166 and Risko 193-4.

COLLEGE WILL NOT ENTER SENIOR RUGBY

Students Hundred Per Cent Against Request of Union

Craigdarroch Institution Strongly Opposes Idea of Stepping Into Faster Company, and Will Keep Team in Intermediate League

Victoria College's intermediate rugby fifteen flatly turned down the request of the Victoria Rugby Union that they play in the senior ranks for the remainder of the season, at a meeting of the Students' Council and members of the squad held yesterday afternoon at the Craigdarroch institution. The verdict reached at the meeting came after discussing the matter from every angle. When put to a vote, the students were a hundred per cent in favor of continuing in the intermediate ranks.

When questioned yesterday, Bill Boorman, captain of the Collegians, stated that the members could not see their way clear to enter the faster company as requested by the local union and as a result would continue in the intermediate league. Skipper Boorman declared that he had been advised by several well-known coaches of senior teams and many outsiders to keep his team where it was.

"If the Oak Bay Wanderers senior fifteen replace their intermediate squad, we will play against them and do our best. If Brentwood and the University School enter the league after Christmas, there will be four strong teams fighting for the second half honors, and we may not have such a smooth journey," Captain Boorman said.

Some of the team attending the meeting, who played for College last year, reminded those present of the defeat they received at the hands of the senior J.B.A.A. fifteen in an exhibition fixture twelve months ago, which went to show that College was not fit for senior rugby.

H. J. Ketchum's request to the union that College be restricted to bona fide students alone on their rugby personnel was also brought up for discussion. Ketchum, who is secretary of the British Columbia Rugby Union, placed his request before the last meeting of the local union. At the present, Des Patterson and Paddy Walton, a member of Victoria's "Rip" squad last year, are the only two outsiders on the team and the meeting decided to leave this discussion in abeyance until a deputation appeared before the local union.

Captain Bill Boorman, Vice-Captain Charlie Copeland and Paul Sprinkling were appointed to attend the meeting of the Victoria Rugby Union, Wednesday evening.

LOCAL RUGGERS OFF FOR GAME WITH VARSITY

Capitals to Face University Gridmen in "Big Four" Fixture Today

STUDENTS NEED WIN TO STAY IN RUNNING

Although out of the running for the "Big Four" Canadian Rugby League championship, Coaches Dick Wilson and Ernie Cook and their Victoria Capitals left for the Mainland last night, where they play their last scheduled game of the season, this afternoon, at the Athletic Park, against the strong University of British Columbia aggregation.

Local coaches announced last night that the following squad would represent Victoria against Varsity: Snap, Goad, Insides, Bob Engelson, and Gordie Pettigrew; middles, De McAllister and Harold Engelson; outfields, Art Peil and Johnny Rowlands; quarterback, Jack Bell; flying wing, Bill Lemm; halves, Putnam, Stagg and Horne; reserves, De Blaquiere, Downell, McMillan, Williams, Butler and C. Bell.

U.B.C. NEED WIN
A victory for the Caps means the passing of Varsity out of the championship race. U.B.C. need a win over Victoria and another over the undefeated Meralomas on Thanksgiving. Despite the formidable aspect of the job facing the students they have plenty of backers willing to wage the fight through both tussles with flying colors.

Varsity are in fine shape for the grinds, as all their regulars, with the exception of Gavin Drom, are fit and ready for battle. Word reaching here yesterday stated that Coach "Doc" Burke is not taking Victoria too lightly and he is sending his strongest squad against the Islanders.

Monday, Meralomas and Varsity will meet and New Westminster are carded to battle Vancouver.

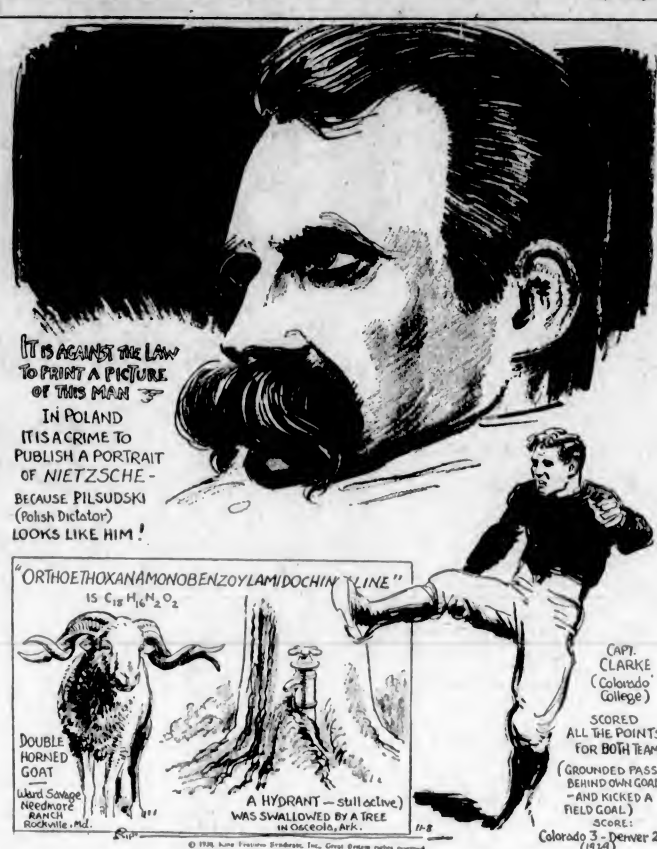

KRUSE AND FREBERG WRESTLE TO DRAW

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—After eight rounds of furious and vicious wrestling, Bob Kruse, of Portland, and Jack Freberg, hailed as the Swedish champion, from Chicago, each gained one fall and the match was declared a draw here last night.

In the semi-final match, Ted Thye, Portland, took the only fall from Eddie Wirth, Kansas City, after some bang-up mulling. Wirth was forced to concede the fall in the fifth and last round.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

By Ripley

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
A Blue Streak.—The conception of space is finite only in a mathematical sense. Thus, it has been suggested by Minkowski, Einstein and others that space may be finite and yet unbounded, for the reason that anything traveling through cosmic space would never come to any "jumping-off place," and yet the total volume of space might be known to be less than a certain number of cubic light-years. The doctrine of the finitude of space is a part of the famous doctrine of "curvature of space," and involves the assumption of one or more dimensions in addition to those recognized by the traditional Euclidean geometry. In accordance with this theory, a straight line, instead of being infinite in length, would return to the point of origin. It has been estimated that the greatest distance which anything would travel in a straight line before arriving at the point of origin is of the order of 500,000,000,000 light-years, or about  $3 \times 10^{14}$  miles. Of course these estimates cannot be put to test, because the greatest distance our most powerful telescopes enable us to see is less than one-five-hundredth of this distance. ## Final Preparations Made for Hill Climb Of Motorcycle Club

Seventeen Members File Entries for Annual Event to Take Place Monday—First Ride Will Commence at 2 o'Clock

With the entry list swelled to seventeen, members of the Victoria Motorcycle Club are in readiness for their annual hill climb Monday at Mount Douglas. All the owners are busily engaged in tuning up their machines and are spending hours of toil in adjusting spark plugs, carburetors and other parts.

The riders have drawn their numbers, and the final touches are being put on the hill to assure making the climb this year a great success.

Joe McAllister will handle the megaphone again to keep the hill clear for the riders along with Owen Fowler, who will act as referee. Lorne Green and Leo Edwards will be the official recorders, while Tom Britton and Jack Watt will measure the distance that the boys make. Bill Lemm and Wilf Hughes will act as starters.

In the seventy-four-cubic-inch motor class there are five entries: O. Diment, Able West, George Reece, Fred Diment and Denny Barraclough. Although these are the big bikes, in former years they have only just beaten out the forty-fives and in some instances the "little fellows" have proved a little too good for them. In this class George Reece should give a good account of himself with his Indian, but if Able West has "Orphan Annie" on deck there may be a Harley in the limelight.

Forty-five-inch class
In the forty-five-inch class the wise ones are not saying a word as to the probable winner with such an entry list as Les Fritsch, Jimmie Norrington, Frank Thomas, Keith Dorman, Johnny Norrington, Dick Shanks, Bob Shanks, Monte Lock and Joe Andrews. These boys are all capable of winning the event and it looks as if Johnny Norrington will have a tougher proposition than he did last year. The Harley entries here are Dick Shanks and Joe Andrews and it looks as though the Indians are going to have the easy going. Bob Shanks has got a good machine "up his sleeve" for this event, specially "souped" up.

OPEN EVENT
In the third and final event of the day, the open ride, once come the big upsides. All the riders have entered in this, and some pretty rides should be seen by the crowd. Besides the others already named, Lionel Dickson, on his Indian four, and Bill Dillabough, on his "DL" motor Harley, will ride. Dickson has obtained the highest mark in the trials this year and should be a hard man to beat. The trophy for this event is the Paul Girardou Challenge Trophy.

The programme will get under way promptly at 2 o'clock, and the club requests that the late comers consider themselves to the side of the hill.

Newman Still Out in Front In Cue Meet

LONDON, Nov. 7.—With tomorrow the final day of the third match at the international billiards tournament, Tom Newman, in play, closed today with 26,905 points, and his opponent at the table, Clarke McConachy, with 19,954 points.

Walter Lindrum, Australia, closed, in play, with 26,851 points, and Joe Davis, the English champion, with 23,729. Both Lindrum and Newman have practically won their match against their two opponents.

At the outset of each of the matches in the tournament, Lindrum has given his opponents 7,000 points each.

BALMY BEACH WINS

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—In the first league game played under the flood lights in Eastern Canada's major league Rugby circles, Balmy Beach, champions of the eastern section of the Toronto Rugby Football Union senior series, defeated Camp Borden, 13 points to 10, in the final scheduled fixture of the group.

CANADIENS ADD ONLY ONE NEW MAN TO SQUAD

Johnny Gagnon Lone Recruit to Land Regular Berth With Frenchmen

ALL OF LAST YEAR'S REGULARS BACK AGAIN

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—A good hockey team is never a fixed quantity or quality. Although Montreal Canadiens, of the National Hockey League, were good enough last spring to go through an amazingly tough post-season play-off schedule, Manager Cecil Hart has strengthened his band for the 1930-31 season. To take the Stanley Cup last March, and with it the world's professional hockey title, Canadiens battled the sturdy Chicago Black Hawks, the New York Rangers, and the record-breaking Boston Bruins into submission.

Cecil Hart tried out a large group of rookies, including four youngsters who made good in other leagues, but only decided to keep one of them. Johnny Gagnon, who burned up the Canadian-American League year as right winger for Providence, is being kept, but Bud Cook, brother of the famous Bill and Bun, of the Rangers, and the Giroux brothers, from the Far West, will all go to Providence.

KEEP LAST YEAR'S REGULARS
Unlike most other teams, Canadiens have not traded, sold or otherwise disposed of any of its members of last year's squad. The goaltending berth will again be in the capable hands of George Hainsworth. In front of him will be the potent defence of Sylvia Mantha, Marty Burke, Albert LeDuc and Bert McCaffery.

Morens, conceded by all experts to be the fastest player in hockey, will again hold down centre and reports himself as ready for another good season. He is one of the most prolific goal-scorers in the league. Aurel Joliat, freed of the inconvenience of a sore shoulder which handicapped him last year, will again display his slick-handling ability along the left wing boards.

For the second and third-string lines much material is available. Pete Lepine will again be relief centre, and Mondou, George Mantha, Nick Waisie, Wilder Larocelle and Rivers, are all trying for the other berths. Some pruning will be done before the schedule gets under way, as the spares going to Providence to aid Sprague Cleghorn in his title defence.

Y. M. C. A. AND LUMBERMEN TO MEET TONIGHT

Senior Cage Squads Will Clash in Important Fixture at 'Y' Gym

TWO PRELIMINARY GAMES SCHEDULED

C.P.S. and Y.M.C.A. cage basketballs will occupy the spotlight in the City Basketball League fixtures at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium tonight when they come together in the feature attraction of the programme. In the opener, Varsity High School and Hustlers will battle it out in an intermediate "A" fixture, while Keating and Peders Brothers will meet in a senior "C" game.

The "Y" personnel will be strong and will include the following stars: Bert Acres, Ralph Bagley and Ian McGavin.

High School, who upset the dope last week by noising out the strong K. of P. quintette, will have their hands full when they tackle the youthful Hustlers, a team that includes several of last year's Doo-Dads, Sunday school champions.

The Keating-Peders fixture should be nip and tuck from the opening whistle. The suburbanites have plenty of experience, with Bob Whyte, Bob and Tommy Peders back in uniform. Alan Le Marquand will handle all three games, the first of which will get under way at 7:30 o'clock.

Saskatchewan Varsity Issues Grid Challenge

SASKATOON, Nov. 7.—University of Saskatchewan Rugby team has challenged the winners of the Eastern Canadian Intercollegiate Rugby League, it was stated here by Ray Frey, manager of the Saskatchewan aggregation, champions of the Western Canada Intercollegiate Union.

Frey declared that the play-off would take place in the East if acceptance of the challenge is made by the Easterns. No indication of the Eastern attitude has been received, Frey stated, and no definite plans for the eastward trip had been made by his outfit.

Saskatchewan University play their last game of the season Saturday, against the University of Alberta. The Prairie Province team boasts a record of forty-eight points scored, against five counted against them. Five stars of the team are playing their last year with the Saskatchewan team, and the Eastern game is being urged as a wind-up of their collegiate Rugby careers.

CHICAGO HAS 278 NEGRO CHURCHES

There are 278 negro churches in Chicago, 100 of which are using regular church buildings for their services. Of these, there are 113 Baptist, fifty-six Holiness and thirty-five African Methodist. A recent survey shows a wide variety of services are held. In some of them, according to The Boston Congregationalist, the emotions reign supreme, while others follow thoughtful and dignified orders of worship. The need of more thoroughly trained ministers and of better church buildings is urged in the report.

Champion Irish Jumper Captures Honors at Show

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Nov. 7.—Living up to her reputation, Roxanna, champion stone wall jumper of Ireland, from

John Warwick's stable, today defeated a large field of privately-owned jumpers, to win the first blue ribbon of the National Horse Show for the famous Irish stable.

In winning the event, the beautiful six-year-old mare performed faultlessly on the first time over the brush and then repeated the exhibition of fencing in a jump-off with several other horses.

AUTO CLUB MAY REQUEST PROBE OF GAS PRICE

Government Likely to Be Asked to Investigate
Rates Charged

REDUCTION DOES NOT SATISFY ASSOCIATION

While there has been a general drop of two cents in the retail price of gasoline throughout the city, with even a little lower price in some instances, the price of the wholesale has not been altered. As far as can be learned there has been no response from the producing companies to the request which was made at the instance of the local branch of the Automobile Club of British Columbia, supported by the retailers, which called for a lowering of the price in a wholesale way.

In the absence of this, it is likely that there will now be a move made by the Auto Club for a request to be made of the Dominion Government to take steps in the direction of appointing a commission to investigate the subject of gasoline prices throughout the Dominion, and especially with respect to British Columbia.

"The necessity for a powerful organization of automobile owners was never more apparent than it is today," said R. R. Webb, secretary of the Victoria branch of the Automobile Club of British Columbia. "Realizing for some time that the price of gasoline was becoming out of all proportion with that of other commodities, the Automobile Club of British Columbia recently instituted an investigation resulting in strong representations being made to the producing companies, requesting a substantial reduction."

"While a saving of two cents has been put into effect since these overtures commenced, it is understood that the wholesale price remains the same and that the difference is being absorbed by the local distributors. From this it would appear that the local dealers consider the price excessive and are desirous of giving the public a measure of relief."

NOT SATISFIED

"The motoring public is not satisfied with this, however. In comparison with other commodities the price of gasoline is still unreasonably high and the Automobile Club will not relax its efforts to bring it down to a level in conformity with other products. The club will enlist the support of all the provincial automobile clubs and associations in Canada, probably through the offices of the Canadian Automobile Association, with which they are affiliated."

"The use of gasoline for motor fuel has become so general and enters so much into the economic life of the people that it is virtually in the class of a public utility and a public necessity, and as such should be under a measure of control," continued Mr. Webb. "It has been suggested that the Dominion Government should be requested to investigate the whole situation to ascertain if possible the reason for the high cost to the consumer. This may be found necessary."

AUTO CLUB'S INTEREST

The right of the Auto Club to be interested in this matter, as representing the motorists of the province, was defended by Mr. Webb. "The result of the activities of the automobile clubs is evident everywhere. The mileage of improved and surfaced roads has been greatly increased and is still being added to. As a local illustration, attention might be directed to the much improved condition of the Island Highway, particularly at the Malahat section. It was at the repeated representations by the Automobile Club of British Columbia that a definite programme of improvement of this road was adopted and the excellent work which has been done there by the Department of Public Works is a source of great satisfaction to all motorists who travel over it."

"With a constantly increasing motor traffic and a consequent demand for more and better roads, money has to be forthcoming to provide them and motorists should seriously consider the absolute necessity of maintaining a strong organization capable of safeguarding their interests against possible exploitation. The Victoria branch of the Automobile Club continues to show a steady growth in membership, as more and more automobile owners realize the necessity and importance of the work carried on by the club," he concluded.

Strath; chaplain, J. McLeod; sergeant-at-arms, F. D. McDougall; inner guard, G. McInnes; outer guard, G. McInnes; and historian, F. W. Leung.

That Body of Yours

By James H. Barton, M.D.

HOW WASTES AFFECT THE WHOLE BODY

A patient suffered for seven years with lumbago, that severe pain in the lower back. He was unable to work for the last two years. He had "been everywhere and tried everything."
By the use of a simple form of treatment he was greatly improved in a few days and in ten days was completely cured. The lumbago has not returned.
Another patient suffered with nervous prostration. She was only thirty-six, but looked many years older. She had been suffering more or less for twelve years.
Again the simple treatment was used and by the end of six weeks she was utterly cured and was walking three or four miles every day.
Another patient had lost much flesh, was vomiting several times daily and spent most of her time in bed; apparently some form of stomach trouble.
Again the simple treatment was given and in one month her vomiting had ceased, her ability to take food without distress returned, and her weight came up to normal.
Another patient suffered for years with pain in the region of the appendix. Her doctor advised no operation as the appendix appeared to be all right. She insisted on having it removed but she got no relief from her pain.
In this case also, the simple treatment was given and in one month she was cured of her pain.
And so I could go on relating the cases of Dr. G. M. Russell, Billings, Montana.

What was this simple treatment? Just a thorough cleansing of the large intestine by coarse food and the use of high enemas or injections into the lower bowel.
"All these patients thought that their intestinal habit was quite satisfactory, and yet the coarse foods and the high enemas removed a great amount of accumulated wastes. It was the absorption of these wastes by the blood that was causing all the trouble, because every part of that body of yours is nourished, is built up, by the blood. And if that blood contains the poisonous wastes from the large intestine, and if these poisonous wastes are in such quantities that they cannot be removed by the liver, then every part of you—brain, stomach, heart and nerves is going to suffer.
This explains why all the above ailments could happen without any real organic trouble. It also explains why there was such great relief when the poisons were removed from the large intestine.

SENTENCED TO YEAR IN JAIL FOR ENTERING HOUSE AND STEALING
Harry Beck, convicted in the city police court yesterday for stealing jewelry and various personal effects from a house on Collinson Street, was sentenced to one year in jail by Police Magistrate Jay. The case, which the accused offered to fight, had a wife who was sick and a sick child.
The police produced the record of the accused which showed that a year ago, in October he had been allowed suspended sentence in Vancouver for breaking and entering a house.
Two rings were produced in court which had been sold by the accused to a jeweler on the statement that he had obtained them from men in a camp where he had worked. These were identified as belonging to Mrs. Paulson, whose house was entered. Other jewelry and a club bag with personal belongings of Clyde Paulson were also identified.
With the exception of the rings, the articles had been found by Detectives Stark and Phillips in the room of the accused when they entered the place at midnight and instituted a search.

Claim Alleged Bank Bandits Admit Two Other Big Robberies

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Police state Murray James Kendall and Jack Darwent, arrested last night in Barrie by provincial police, and charged with the robbery of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Unionville, have made admissions regarding the robbery of two other banks.
The admissions are alleged to cover the robbery at King Street of the Bank of Montreal on August 10, and also that of the Bank of Nova Scotia, at Agincourt, Ont., on October 2.

Churches and Their World-Wide Work

BIG NIGHT OF TOPICAL SONG

City Temple to Hear Many Artists at Armistice Day Service

FIREMEN'S BAND PLAYS

A Thanksgiving and Armistice musical festival will characterize the evening service at the Victoria City Temple on Sunday, the music to be rendered by the large chorus choir of the church under the direction of George A. Downard, and the pre-church music being offered by the Victoria Firemen's Band under the conductorship of Alfred Prescott.

Noted city soloists in the vocal and instrumental sections will be heard in the Thanksgiving and Armistice motif. Among these will be the Partridge Brothers, who sing Sergeant's "Watchman, What of the Night?" Percy J. Edmonds will sing the appropriate baritone solo, "The Trumpeter," by Squires. Miss Eileen Bennett will render "There Is No Death," by O'Hara, a tribute to the fallen dead of the battlefields. As a pre-chorus solo, to create the spiritual and dramatic atmosphere for the brief message of the Temple pastor, Edith Todd will sing Colonel MacRae's famous "In Flanders Fields" to the music of Desha Wells, formerly of the Victoria Boys' Band, G. H. E. Green.

Temple chorus-choir renditions will be: Hayden's "The Heavens are Telling," Mendelssohn's peace anthem, "How Lovely Are Thy Messengers That Bringeth Good Tidings of Peace," the "Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass; Dvorak's selection from the New World Symphony, "Going Home" (a spiritual), and

Presbyterian Girls to Have New Secretary

MISS JEAN MACGREGOR
Who Comes to Victoria from Glasgow, N.S., as the New Girls' Work Secretary for the Presbyterian Church.

Handel's "Hallelujah" from the "Messiah."

Alfred Prescott will offer the following programme by the Firemen's Band from 7 to 7:30 o'clock preceding the evening service: "March Militaire" (Schubert); overture, "Morning, Noon and Night" (Suppe); Quartette from "Rigoletto"; selection, "Chimes of Normandy" (Planquette); "Largo" by Handel.

Dr. Davies will deliver a brief Armistice message on the topic of "Flanders Fields" (modernized).

At the morning service the topic will have a Thanksgiving theme entitled, "Singing Praises at Midnight." The morning anthem will be Barnaby's "O Lord, How Manifold Are Thy Works."

A. S. Reeve, the Cambridge student who rowed in this year's "Varsity" race, has just been ordained a priest in the Church of England.

"LEST WE FORGET": VETERAN'S TOPIC

Rev. L. C. Kenworthy to Stress the Brotherhood of Man at New Thought

Armistice and Thanksgiving Day will both be remembered at the New Thought Temple, 720 1/2 Port Street, with special services. The morning theme will be "Lest We Forget." Rev. Lionel C. Kenworthy, a veteran himself, has vivid memories of that last day and there registered the determination to work for the brotherhood of man. The theme for the evening will be "Thanks Be to God." Mrs. J. B. Shaw will be the soloist at both services, rendering Kipling's "Recessional" (Music by R. De Koven).

On Wednesday at 8 o'clock Mr. Kenworthy will give his last address on the teachings of the masters.

VETERANS INVITED BY PADRE PRINGLE

Centennial Choir to Give Sacred Cantata—Pastor to Speak at Morning Service

The Sunday morning service at Centennial will be devoted wholly to reflections, in message and music, related to the Armistice period. The sermon theme will be "A Soldier's Thoughts." Mr. Pringle served in France as padre with the Cameron Highlanders and is now in the active militia as chaplain of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada. He invites all veterans and those now in the services to attend, informally, with their families. The morning anthem will be "What of the Night, O Watchman?" (Thomson), with solo part by Joe Almond. The solo, "Christ in Flanders Fields" (Ward Stephens), will be given by J. W. Buckler, and the service will close with "In Flanders Fields" (J. Dean Wells), sung by Frank L. Tupperman.

In place of the usual sermon in the evening the choir will offer Maund's sacred cantata entitled "A Song of Thanksgiving." The soloists will be Mesdames J. Prisk, Eileen, Tupperman and Locke, Miss Marchant, Messrs J. W. Buckler and J. Almond. This cantata is a magnificent composition in both vocal and instrumental harmonies. It is the presentation, in an appealing musical form, of a Christ message of redemption leading on, with interpretative melodies, through thoughts of human needs, burdens and sorrows, to a final triumphant symphony vibrant with notes of joy and telling of victory attained through the Redeemer's love and power.

Centennial is looking forward to the celebration of its forty-fourth anniversary on Sunday, November 10, and Monday, November 23 and 24.

Practice for Handel's "Messiah" is now held in the church on Wednesday evenings. Until further notice congregational prayer meeting will be held on Thursdays at 8 o'clock.

BRITISH-ISRAEL HAS SUITABLE SUBJECTS ON MONDAY EVENING

Thanksgiving and the Armistice will be observed at the British-Israel meeting in the Alexandra Club, Campbell Building, at 8 o'clock on Monday, November 10. The address will be given by Mr. E. E. Richards, who will take for his subject, "Israel and Judah under their national symbolism of 'The Vine and the Fig Tree'."

TO PLACE WREATH AT VICTORIA WEST

At Victoria West United Church, Rev. O. M. Sanford will preach in the morning on "Thank God for National and Personal Blessings," and in the evening on "The Armistice Message After Twelve Years." In connection with the latter, a special prayer service will be used, and a wreath will be placed on the church's honor roll. There will be appropriate music at both services. Evening music: Anthems, "God, Who Meets Earth and Heaven" (Buck), and "The Sun Shall Be No More" (Woodward); solo, "There Is No Death" (O'Hara), George Guy.

The little old house in which Robert Raikes assembled the first Sunday school class in the world is still standing in Gloucester, England. It is a modest, two-story building, entering directly into a room occupying the entire front. This small, low-ceilinged room would probably accommodate about twenty children.

Boys' Camp Fires Fostering Spirit Of World Amity

HOW boys of diverse nationalities light the torch of mutual goodwill in the colorful closing ceremony of the Y.M.C.A. international camps, is told in tomorrow's issue as the church features of the day. These camps are cited as an effort to foster the spirit of world amity.

Returns to Take Mt. Tolmie Pastorate

REV. H. J. ARMITAGE, PH.D.
Who was for several years pastor of Victoria West United Church, has taken charge of St. Mark's Church, under designation of the A.C. Conference.

Services in Christ Church Cathedral tomorrow will include Holy Communion at 8 and 9:30 o'clock, Matins and sermon at 11, annual service of patriotic commemoration at 3, and Evensong and sermon at 7:30. The dean will preach at the morning and evening services. On Tuesday there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10:30 o'clock. A period of silence will be observed at 11 o'clock, synchronizing with the public silence. Other services during the week will include morning prayer at 8:30 and evening prayer at 8:15 daily, and a celebration of the Holy Communion on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock.

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Eva Hasell will give an illustrated lecture in the Memorial Hall, dealing with her work in Western Canada. Hasell is an English churchwoman who has done remarkable work among the pioneer settlers in the scattered parts of western Canada. For over twenty years she has ministered to them by means of motor caravans and she has also sponsored the work of the Sunday School by Post. A collection will be taken during the evening.

The Men's Parish Guild will meet on Thursday at 8 o'clock, when His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia will give an address on "The Cariboo Trail."

Church Briefs

"The War and Its Consequences and Our Present Hopes and Fears" will be the subject of the sermon at St. John's Church on Sunday. There will be Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Morning Prayer at 11, and Evensong at 7:30.

The Very Rev. John D. McLaughlin, D.D., dean of St. Mark's, Seattle, will be the preacher at both the morning and evening services. Dr. McLaughlin is a Canadian, born at London, Ont., and educated at London and Toronto University. He was appointed to an important rectorship in Chicago early in his career, and came to the Pacific Coast to succeed Rev. Dr. Lloyd, another Canadian, as dean of Olympia and rector of St. Mark's, Seattle. Dr. McLaughlin is noted as a thoughtful and eloquent preacher. This is his first visit to Victoria, having been invited by Canon Chadwick as the Armistice-Thanksgiving preacher.

Appropriate music will be rendered at the services, including Thanksgiving and Armistice hymns and organ recital by Mr. G. J. Burnett before the evening service. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 o'clock in the schoolroom, Mason Street, and the Anglican Young People's Bible Class will meet in the church vestry at the same hour.

Christianity in Japan Reported As Influential

"My observation goes to show," states Dr. J. H. Armp, of the United Church of Canada, as reported in The Western Recorder, "that we are building in our mission fields a real, authentic, self-conscious Christian Church. In Japan we have 100 fully self-supporting congregations, with thirty others assisted by a Christian mission. The Japanese Church has its own ordained ministry, its own bishop and its own courts and its allocation for it is no less than $10 a member. Christianity, though small, exercises a powerful influence in Japan. Of the five Imperial universities, three of them are directed by Christian presidents. The leader of the Labor party in Japan is a Christian and the most powerful speaker in the Japanese Parliament is also a Christian and a graduate of our own college. In Japan there is the wonderful Kingdom of God movement led by Dr. Kagawa, whose aim is a million Japanese church members in three years."

Both Days to Be Observed At St. Mary's

Special Armistice-Thanksgiving services will be held at St. Mary's tomorrow. Holy Communion at 8 o'clock; Matins and sermon at 11 o'clock; Evensong and sermon at 7 o'clock. The rector will preach at both services. The choir will sing at both services. The choir will sing at both services. The choir will sing at both services.

BUNYAN IS GIVEN TO HIGHLANDERS

A free gift of 500 copies of "Pilgrim's Progress," printed in Gaelic, has been made for distribution in the Highlands of Scotland, according to Rev. John Macdonald, secretary of the Religious Trust Society in Scotland, as reported by The Christian Science Monitor. It was not right, he said, that the country should be flooded with newspapers of the worst type, and said that the distribution of Christian literature was necessary to counteract this evil.

Three Services in Thanksgiving and Armistice Period

THREE services of general public interest will be held in connection with the Thanksgiving Day and Armistice Day period. They are as follows:
Sunday, 3 o'clock—Communion and Armistice Day Service at Christ Church Cathedral, in which Rev. G. C. F. Pringle, Dr. W. G. Wilson, Dean Quinlan and Rev. O. L. Jull will take part.
Monday, 11 o'clock—Community Service at Metropolitan Church, arranged by the Metropolitan Association; preacher, Rev. G. H. Reynolds.
Tuesday, 10:45 o'clock—Commemoration at Cenotaph, conducted by Rev. G. Chapman. Two-minute silence at 11 o'clock.

TO ANSWER QUERY OF MARK ON CAIN

Three Speakers to Take Part in Advent Testimony Rally on Monday Evening

Sunday will be another great day at the Central Baptist Church, when the pastor, Rev. J. B. Rowell, will take up his two great Bible study series again. In the morning he will continue the "Expositions in the Bible to the Romans," and at the evening service he will speak on the second dispensation in the chart series on "Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth," viz., "Man Under Conscience." In dealing with this subject Mr. Rowell will answer the following questions: "Can advance in scientific knowledge save from moral decline?" "What was the 'Mark' God set on Cain?" "Is the teaching of the translation of the saints ancient or modern?"
The Lord's Supper will be observed at the evening service and new members received.
Monday being Thanksgiving Day, the evening has been specially set apart for an Advent testimony rally. The service will open at 8 o'clock, preceded by bright singing from 7:45. There will be three twenty-minute addresses: (1) "The Church in the Present Age in Relation to the Second Coming of Christ," by Dr. W. E. Daly; (2) "The Imminence of Christ's Return," by Rev. F. T. Tapscott; (3) "Critical Crises Concerning the Coming Christ," by Rev. J. B. Rowell. In this last message Mr. Rowell will gather up the evidences of the past ten years as proclaiming the nearness of Christ's Second Coming. There will be wholehearted singing of Advent testimony hymns. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Evening of Music at First United

Dr. Wilson Will Urge Thanksgiving—Choir to Present Evening Message in Song

Both in sermon and music the services at First United Church tomorrow will be motivated to the idea of Thanksgiving and Armistice Day. Let Us Thank God will be the theme of Dr. Wilson's sermon in the morning.
In the evening the service will be wholly musical, the choir, under the leadership of W. C. Pyfe, presenting the following sacred selections:
Choir, "In Jewry Is God Known" (Dr. Whitfield); anthem, "Blessed Jesus" (Dvorak); soprano solo, "Consider the Lilies" (Tappett); Mrs. T. R. Bowden; solo and chorus, "Hear My Prayer" (Mendelssohn); Mrs. W. H. Blackaller; solo, "Arm, Arm, Ye Brave" (Mendelssohn); J. F. Mitchell; hymn and anthem, "O Saviour Friend" (Handel); soloist, Miss Marjorie Watson; chorus, "The Night Is Departing" (Mendelssohn). The music in the morning is: Anthem, "We Shall Dwell in the Land" (Stainer); soloist, Mrs. W. Wright; bass solo, "Recessional" (De Koven); Fred Wright.

ST. SAVIOUR'S HAS PAID DEBT ON HALL

Through active co-operation on the part of all the parish organizations, St. Saviour's Church has completed payment of the debt incurred three years ago in building an extension to the parish hall.
Tomorrow there will be special commemoration of all those who were engaged in the great war, which wrought about the peace in 1918. There will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. Matins at 11 and Evensong at 7 o'clock. The placing of a poppy wreath at the altar will be a preliminary act, in behalf of the congregation, at the morning service. The rector, Rev. Edwin Moss, will preach throughout the day.

Republic's Head Has Become Christian

GENERAL CHIANG KAI SHEK
President of the Chinese Republic, who was recently baptized into the Christian faith at the home of his mother-in-law, Madame K. T. Soong. His action will bear witness to the peace which Communism and the various measures against Christianity.

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Douglas Street, tomorrow, the minister, Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, B.A., will officiate at both services, which will be of a special Thanksgiving character. The congregation's annual thank-offering will be received in aid of the local and also the general budget. In the morning the sermon will be entitled, "Accounts We Can Never Close." In the evening the choir will sing four special numbers and there will be a short address on "The Overflowing Cup" (Ps. xxiii, 5).

On Wednesday next Mr. Luttrell will deliver a lecture in the lecture room of the church at 8 o'clock on "Our Interest in India," illustrated by lantern slides, and on Saturday the annual bazaar of the Women's Guild will take place in the afternoon.

Speakers Coming From Vancouver And Los Angeles

Dr. A. F. Barton, of the Progressive Thought Temple, 935 Pandora Avenue, is presenting two guest speakers during the week. On Sunday at 7:30 o'clock Rev. Ada Tonkin, of Vancouver, former minister of Unitarian Church here, will lecture. She is a very forceful speaker and is sure to delight her audiences.

On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Dr. Barton presents William J. Root, of Los Angeles, well known throughout the Pacific Coast regions as physical health director. Mr. Root will speak on "Building Yourself Scientifically." He will also speak on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when he will take for his theme "Physical Culture Pads and Panacea." Mr. Root will personally demonstrate deep breathing exercises along with other original exercises which have made him famous as a health director.

R-101 Would Not Have Received Certificate From Inspection Chief

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Three months before the dirigible R-101 sailed on her last tragic voyage, aircraft inspectors discovered that leaks in the gas bags had decreased the ship's lifting power to an alarming extent, it developed today at the inquiry into the loss of the dirigible.

"If it had been left to me," said F. McWade, chief of the inspection department at Cardington, "I'm afraid the R-101 would not have received a certificate of air-worthiness."

LEAKS REPORTED

Under persistent questioning by Sir John Simon, head of the Board of Inquiry, Mr. McWade said he had reported the leaks last July. The gas bags were rubbing against writing points when the ship sailed, he said, and the friction was wearing holes in the gas bags.

They tried padding the points of contact, McWade said, but this device was unsatisfactory. He recommended certain changes in construction, but these would have necessitated removal of the gas bags, and the job might have taken three months.

IN SAME CONDITION

Meanwhile, Lord Thomson, the Air Minister who perished in the crash on October 5, was eager to get away on the flight to India. When the dirigible left, Mr. McWade said, she was, with the exception of the padding, in the same condition as when he had first reported the leaks.

Mr. McWade testified after Sir John had read his memorandum recommending reconstruction in construction, and another document in which Col. B. C. Richmond, also killed in the crash, noted that the leaks were decreasing the ship's lifting power.

McWade made his statement, which caused a sensation at the hearing, after insisting, prodded by Sir John Simon, head of the Board of Inquiry.

FAULTS DISCOVERED

Documents indicating that major construction faults had been discovered in the dirigible R-101 before she was sailed in two for inspection.

Hawker Hart Plane in Flight

THE Royal Air Force of England is making important changes in the equipment of its fighting airplanes, it was announced recently. When completed it will be far advanced over all others. The Hawker Hart is one of the special type of airplane which will be used. It has a top speed of 180 miles an hour at 10,000 feet.

CHINESE PLAN TRAIN FERRY OVER YANGTZE

Would Greatly Facilitate Traffic Movement Through Port of Shanghai

BRITISH FIRMS WILL TENDER ON EQUIPMENT

NANKING, China, Nov. 7.—Sun Fo, Minister of Railways, today announced plans had been completed for construction of a train ferry across the Yangtze River, connecting Nanking with Pukow. The latter place is the southern terminus of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, while Nanking is the western terminus of the Shanghai-Hangchow line.

The ferry would establish through railway service, making easier facilities for handling freight of all nations through China's foremost commercial centre, Shanghai, and areas north of the Yangtze over the Tientsin-Pukow and the Haichow-Tungkuang railways.

It was anticipated the ferry would cost about $4,000,000 (Mexican). Construction was reported to be commencing at once, and it was expected the ferry would be completed by 1932.

The ferry would be capable of carrying twenty-one forty-ton freight cars; twelve passenger cars, and a locomotive at one crossing, making the trip in about fifty minutes.

It is estimated at least 3,000 tons of freight cross the river daily at the present time. It was also understood here that several British firms were interested in the construction of ferries and pontoons.

NORTHWESTERN IS ANCHORED SAFELY

SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—The crippled passenger liner Northwestern was safely towed to Dundas Bay, Alaska, near Prince Rupert, after being towed from Cape Spencer yesterday by four fishing boats.

The vessel is awaiting the steamer Alameda, sailing from Seattle tomorrow, to take on her twenty-one passengers, crew of sixty, and freight. The Alameda is due to arrive Wednesday.

The tug Douglas and Creole will be sent to Dundas Bay from Seattle tomorrow to tow the schooner Raymonde, twenty miles off the Boston Lightship, after the schooner had become disabled and appealed for aid. The Raymonde carries a crew of about twelve.

COAST GUARD PATROL TOWING FISH VESSEL

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The coastguard patrol boat Agassiz tonight took in tow the Gloucester schooner Raymonde, twenty miles off the Boston Lightship, after the schooner had become disabled and appealed for aid. The Raymonde carries a crew of about twelve.

RETIRED MARINER DIES

SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—Frank O. Wilson, seventy-three, retired sea captain, was killed here last night when he fell twenty-five feet from a roof while he was repairing a chimney. A sister, Mrs. Jan McCluskey, of Vancouver, B.C., was reported on her way to claim the body.

EXHIBITION AT LUNENBURG HAD NOVEL FEATURE

Miniature Set Illustrating Work of Fishing Schooner on Banks

ELECTRIC WAVES AND BREEZE RUFFLED TANK

Outstanding attractions at the recent Fisheries Exhibition at Lunenburg included a miniature "set" representing a Lunenburg schooner of 100 tons and 140 feet long, with eight dories, in an area of 200 to 300 feet and eight miles of trawl lines, from which a hook was suspended at intervals of three and a half feet, making a total of more than 14,000 hooks.

Seafaring men saw in the exhibit an exact reproduction of vessel and crew when trawling on the banks. The vessel was three and a half feet over all, with every detail of the one hundred tonners in proportion, and was made by Solomon Morash, master builder. The men, dories, trawls, buoys, fish, etc., were made under the supervision of A. W. Schaefer. The twenty-one members of the crew were all cast in the local foundry's moulding shop, thus exemplifying the popular reference to Nova Scotian seafarers, "Wooden Ships and Iron Men." The dories were made in the foundry's sheet-metal department.

EXHIBIT IN MOTION

Besides the vessel, dories and men, there were codfish, haddock, halibut, etc., on the trawl and in the boats, while a whale, swordfish and several tuna could be seen in the water. The whole display was set in a tank which was guided by an electric "wave-maker," while an electric fan created a "sea breeze," setting the whole exhibit in motion and giving a very realistic effect. The miniature set was placed in a marine painting in the background, from which a lighthouse blinked a red beam at five-second intervals.

The eight dories in the display illustrated the complete range of fishing operations employed by the famous Lunenburg schooners. The dory in the left foreground was under way, just starting to haul a trawl; the next just started to haul a trawl; the next just finished setting and one of the men was throwing over the last trawl anchor; the next was rowing out to their buoy to start their trawl just rebaiting the trawl; the next was transferring its catch to the deck of the schooner, while the dory lying astern had already completed unloading.

HAVE STRENUOUS DAYS

After the trawls are set the dories usually go out from the vessel to underdunn their three or four times a day, taking the fish off the hooks and returning them to the vessel to go back in the water. The fish are then brought to the vessel, where they are dressed, washed and salted. A Lunenburg schooner fishing with eight dories and good luck can take from a hundred to two hundred quintals a day, which would be equivalent to forty thousand to eighty thousand pounds. Catching

After Exhibition Flight 12-Motored Seaplane Now Ready for Atlantic Trip

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 7.—The DO-X, Germany's twelve-motored seaplane, took-off at 12:15 this afternoon on a brief exhibition flight to Rotterdam and The Hague. The ship will fly to Calicut, England, tomorrow, on the next lap of its transatlantic flight to New York.

A rainstorm loomed in the direction of Rotterdam and doubt was expressed as to whether full plans of the exhibition flight would be carried out.

ENGINES MADE RACKET
The DO-X first circled over the Zuider Zee, in the direction of Haarlem, and then turned about and at 12:35 flew over Amsterdam with her twelve engines making a terrific racket, which brought crowds to the streets and rooftops.

After a thirty-five-minute flight, the DO-X returned to Amsterdam and made a perfect descent on the Zuider Zee.

When she hopped off, the DO-X fish at this rate, however, makes strenuous demand on the men who are fortunate if they get a few hours sleep during the good fishing. The Lunenburgers do not fish on Sunday, which gives them an opportunity of catching up in their rest, and other opportunities are afforded by stormy weather and sometimes scarcity of bait.

FORMER CONSTABLE IS GIVEN TEN-YEAR TERM
Joseph Pirt Pays Penalty for Fatal Shooting of Mrs. Sophie Light in Manitoba

DAUPHIN, Man., Nov. 7.—Without emotion, Joseph Pirt, former Royal Canadian Police constable, of Yorkton, Sask., today heard Chief Justice D. A. Macdonald sentence him to ten years in the Stony Mountain penitentiary, the penalty for the fatal shooting of Mrs. Sophie Light, thirty-six-year-old South Dakota resident.

A murder charge was placed against the former constable, following the shooting, but at his trial it was reduced by the jury to one of manslaughter.

Under the influence of liquor while on traffic patrol duty at an interprovincial picnic at Roblin, Man., on September 1, Pirt drew his service revolver after he was taunted by several persons. He fired, and Mrs. Light fell to the ground fatally wounded. She died in hospital the next morning.

In sentencing him, Chief Justice Macdonald reprimanded the prisoner, and advised him to obey prison regulations, so that he would gain his freedom before the expiration of the ten years.

COAST SERVICE SHIPS

Concluding her service on the Alaska run for the season, the B.C. Coast Service Ss. Princess Louise arrived at the Beville Street docks yesterday afternoon from the north via Vancouver. The Ss. Princess Noreah will go on the run for several months, starting her schedule on November 12. The Ss. Princess Maquinnia will take the West Coast of Vancouver Island run immediately, replacing the Ss. Princess Noreah.

APPLE SHIP COMING

To load apples at the Cold Storage & Terminal Warehouse, Limited, the Donaldson department, the Royal Mail Steam Packet refrigerator, Ss. Corrientes will arrive here November 30, according to A. E. Shanks, of Rithet Consolidated, Limited, agents of the line. The Corrientes has been diverted from the West Indies-South America service for the time being. Due about the same time, the regular Donaldson ship in the North Pacific service, Ss. Iregalia, will berth at Rithet Piers with cargo for local discharge.

LEFT SAN FRANCISCO

From European ports via Panama and California ports, the Royal Mail Steam Packet refrigerator, Ss. Parana was due to leave San Francisco last evening for Victoria, according to the local agent, Adam P. Moffatt. This is the initial visit of the Parana to Victoria, and she will berth at Rithet Piers to discharge general cargo for local consignees.

Tanker Tamahua in Grave Danger of Breaking Up

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Founded by a rough and rising tide, the grounded Richmond Oil Company's tanker, Tamahua, which nosed into the Pescadero Beach sands, fifty miles south of here, in a fog today, was in grave danger of being broken up. A crew, variously estimated at between forty and fifty men, remained aboard the vessel.

Three tugs, lashed together, heaved against the mighty strength of the Pacific to free the vessel from the sands after a line was passed over the prow at the end of a two-hour fight.

Meanwhile Capt. George Anderson and his crew lined the tanker's rail, watching rescue operations. As the tide began rising, the vessel rocked to and fro in its cradle of sand. With each fall the craft struck its nose sharply against the rocks embedded in sand and surf.
